In Loving Memory of
Beulah Evelyn Pranteau
February 25, 1941—October 31, 2020

Beulah was born Tuesday, February 25, 1941 at Cormorant, Manitoba, to Henry and Margaret (Atkinson) Pranteau and sadly passed away Saturday, October 31, 2020, at St. Anthony's Hospital, The Pas, MB at the age of 79 years.

Beulah lived and worked in the city of Winnipeg and other places over the years. Mom was so talented, as she could play any instrument you put in her hands. She talked about the gatherings in her younger years of singing and the playing she did with family and friends. Mom loved the outdoors, as she enjoyed fishing, camping, going to the lake, picking berries, or visiting friends and family wherever she was invited too. Mom always had a revolving door for family and friends as she loved visitors at Kin Kourt.

At the time of her passing, Beulah was survived by her 3 daughters, Linda (Joseph Sr.) Kryschuk, Claudine Pranteau (Albert Bercier Jr), Isabelle Duff (Alan Kryschuk); along with her grandchildren Joshua (Deedra), Derek, Lauralee Duff, Willie, Ashley Kryschuk, Kyle (Meghan), Treydance Pranteau; great grandchildren Jerome, Micheal, Renee and Charles-Mathieu, Asia and Hayden Ariana, Keegan and Jenova "Pretty Princess"; sister-in-law Agnes Pranteau and many relatives too numerous to mention.

Beulah was predeceased by her parents Henry and Margaret Pranteau; brothers John and Allen Pranteau; sisters Rebecca McLaughlin, Edith Cartwright, Rose Schoch; brother-in-law Robert Schoch; grandchildren Melissa and Joseph Jr. Kryschuk; post deceased by daughter Isabelle Duff (October 24, 2022) and son-in-law Joseph Sr. Kryschuk (November 4, 2022).
