In Loving Memory of
Corey Leonard Daniels

June 7, 2000–February 27, 2022

Corey Leonard Daniels was born Wednesday, June 7, 2000, in Thompson Manitoba to Darlene Daniels. During Coreys early years, Corey resided in Thompson. He had many stories and memories of his time at “Grey Wolf”. At the age of 5, Corey entered the lives of the Kirkness family. They will always remember how he walked in their home with his curly hair, a big smile, and a hug for everyone.

Corey received his education at Dalhousie Elementary, then at Acadia Jr. High for grades 7-9. Corey then went to Fort Richmond Collegiate for the remainder of this high school days.

When Corey was younger, he participated with the International Shotokan Karate Foundation. Corey was also a fantastic artist, who enjoyed drawing Anime and Indigenous themed pieces. Corey loved Anime and cosplay dress up and took every chance possible to attend the annual Anime convention. Corey also enjoyed skateboarding and spent his evenings skating around the community enjoying the fresh air. Corey loved holidays and family celebrations because it meant he was surrounded by family and surrounded by food. Corey would have his fare share of two to three plates of food, he really loved his food.

Corey adored being around his little sister Blandine (Dean). He always ensured that he called or visited her every chance he got.

Corey loved his Kirkness family, and always felt that he had a home with the Kirkness’ as he was a valued member of the family. Corey knew he could always come home at any time. Loretta and Tom made sure he was home for gatherings and special events. He loved the fact that he shared his birth date with Loretta and Cari, he spent his 21st birthday with Cari and Loretta as he did every year since he joined the family.

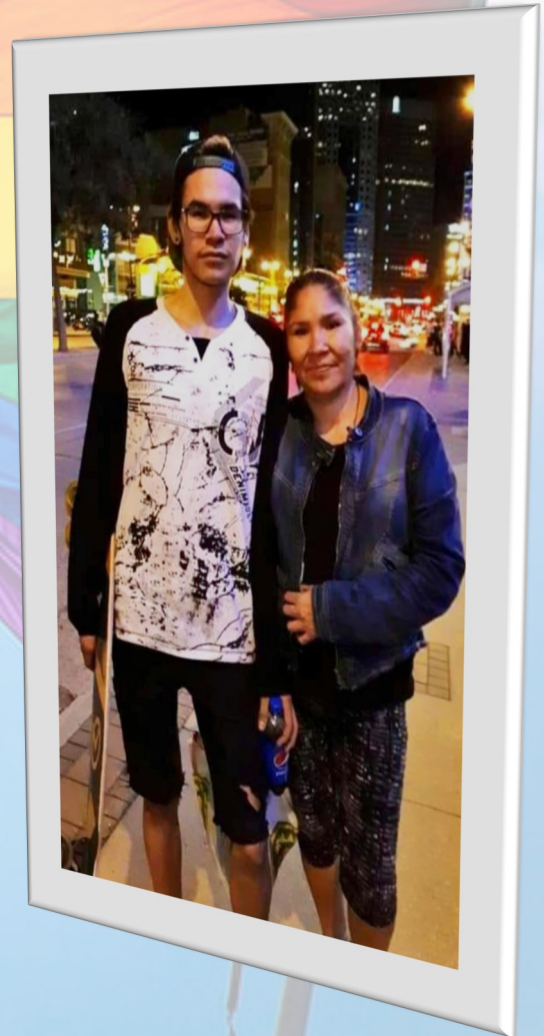

Sadly, Corey passed into the spirit world unexpectedly, on Saturday, February 27, 2022.

Corey is survived by his grandmother Caroline Daniels; his partner Joseph Bonner; siblings Elvira Daniels, Darla Stewart, Gordy Daniels, Philip Daniels, Blandine Daniels, Rema Daniels, Lorne Iverson; and numerous nieces and nephews. Aunts and Uncles: Leonard (Mary) Daniels,
