Life is But
A STOPPING PLACE

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

Expression of Gratitude

The family of Glenmore Johnson III wishes to express our deepest gratitude for the many acts of kindness, prayers and support during our time of bereavement. To our family, thank you for standing in love and unity. To our friends, your thoughtful words and gestures have lightened our sorrow. To our community, your compassion and service have been a living testimony of love. Your presence has been a source of comfort and strength. May God bless each of you for the care and encouragement you've given. We will forever hold your kindness in our hearts. you.

Dear Coke

If I never told you before, thank you. Thank you for your love, patience, time, and gentleness. Thank you for sharing your wisdom and knowledge and for sharing a portion of your life with me. Thank you for our daughter, Breshay, who blessed us with our granddaughter, Kyomi.

You once said you would not leave me alone to enjoy the joy of grandparenting with your "Sugar Baby," yet you were called home. Years ago, we made a promise that if one of us passed before the other, the one remaining would sing at the homegoing service. I hope you will understand and accept my decision to have someone else sing, as my strength will not allow me to fulfill that promise--this loss is simply too great.

In the days before your passing, you called on December 11th, to offer to bring me lunch but I missed your call. Early morning of December 12th, you sent a message saying, "Yes be out soon," words I did not fully understand at the time. On December 14 you called once more reminiscing briefly and laughing about how I would interrupt your Dallas Cowboys games-- unaware that this would be our final conversation. Now, I understand.

Rest well in eternal peace, forever loved and never forgotten, my love, Glenmore Johnson III. Thank You, thank you, and thank you.
