In Loving Memory Of My Dear Father

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and He whispered "Come to Me" With tearful eyes we watched you. We watched you fade away. Although we loved you dearly, We could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard-working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He chose to take the best. It's lonesome here without you we miss you more each day. Life doesn't seem the same since you have gone away. When days are sad and lonely and everything goes wrong, we seem to hear you whisper "Cheer Up and Carry On" Each time we see your picture you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm in God's hands, we'll meet again someday!"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family wishes to express our sincere gratitude to all for your prayers, your love, phone calls, visits and expressions of love and concern for us during our time of bereavement. May we extend special thanks to former wife, Tiffany Wade for all her assistance and support during such a difficult time. May God continue to bless and keep you.

OBITUARY

As I Held Your Hand

I held your hand, a tear formed in the corner of your eye, I said: "Don't leave, let's fight the hard fight." What I didn't know is you had been doing it for a while and not telling anyone.

I'm trying to be okay. There is no more pain, doctors' appointments, changing wounds, or being hungry, and not being able to eat, you are at rest.

I know your grandparents, cousins, aunts and uncles who went before you are waiting with open arms as you journey on that last jog towards home. Knowing you are not alone brings me peace.

I Love You, Robert, you are forever in my heart.
