

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Harvey Joe Wyche Jr., born on October 1, 1958, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Harvey Joe Wyche Sr. and Kathleen Wyche, was preceded in death by his brothers Jimmy Wyche and Charles Wyche, his sister Nevon Orr, and his dearest grandson LaVerl Harden. Harvey gained his wings on January 1, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, joy, laughter, and adventure. He attended Cincinnati Public Schools and, from an early age, professed his faith in Jesus Christ and was baptized into the Christian faith at Word of Deliverance Church under Bishop Bobby Hilton.

Harvey was a man of many talents and passions. As an entrepreneur, he found joy in a variety of pursuits, including his music band, his love for cars, remodeling homes, and his craftsmanship in refurbishing furniture. Harvey formulated an adhesive, working with cement, which became a well-known process still used in today's construction. His creativity and hard work were evident in everything he touched, and his enthusiasm for life was contagious. Harvey's smile, his big personality, and his adventurous spirit made every moment with him memorable—whether he was sharing a laugh, working on projects, or simply spending time with his beloved dog, Vonny. His ability to connect with people and make everyone feel special was a testament to the warmth and kindness he brought into the lives of all who knew him.

Above all, Harvey's greatest pride and joy were his children, whom he cherished deeply. He leaves behind his children, from oldest to youngest: Trincella Lewis, Vada (Tremel) Thomas, Taronda Lewis, Harvest Wyche, and Fredrick Wyche. His legacy continues through his grandchildren, from oldest to youngest: Tommy, Imani, LaVar, Mikel, Carlos, Mortez, Harvell, Allen, Traylen, and Kemet. His great-grandchildren are Karah, Paige, Myla, Tommy Jr., Londyn, Payton, Uriah, Mikel Jr., Paisley, and Torri. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and those who looked to him as a father figure.

Harvey was married to Barbara Wyche, with whom he shared his children. He also had a previous relationship with Arizona Lewis, the mother of his children. Despite the challenges life presented, Harvey always maintained strong bonds with his family, especially his children, to whom he remained dedicated and loving throughout his life.

Harvey is survived by his siblings: Gwendolyn Johnson, Horace Wyche, Ernie Wyche, Veda Wyche, Marvin Wyche, Charlotte (Raymond) Anderson, Angela (Robert) Hunter, Anthony (Deanna) Wyche, Vernon (Belinda) Wyche, and Kathy (Tony) Zanders.

In honoring his spirit, we celebrate a man who lived life fully, loved deeply, and always made room for adventure and laughter. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

Rest in Heaven, Harvey Joe Wyche Jr.
