

Stu Chadwick

was born on September 28, 1956, in Carrington, North Dakota to Harold and Jean (Davis) Chadwick. From a young age, he had a strong work ethic.

Stu met Sherri Lureen while working as a beekeeper in Carrington. On November 21, 1997, they were married. Stu was blessed with his children Lisa, Lynn, Billy, and Ashley. Stu and Sherri couple moved to Glen Ullin in 2008 where Stu began working in the oil field and later the Hebron Brick Yard.

Stu had a love for motorcycles and always looked forward to riding to the Sturgis Rally, embracing the freedom of the open road. He also enjoyed helping others with their small engines, woodworking, and tinkering in his shop, always keeping himself busy with projects.

Stu is survived by his wife, Sherri of Glen Ullin; children, Lynn (Mark) Oster of Ray, ND; Billy Kraft of Carrington, ND, Ashley Kraft of Glen Ullin, ND; siblings, Charles Chadwick, Carol Hoagland, and Joni (Michael Stultz) Chadwick; grandchildren, Nickolas (Larissa) Oster, Lydia (Brock) Viall, Madelyn Oster, Natalie Oster, Kaelyn Kraft, Zoe Kraft; great-grandchildren, Pruitt and Jacie; and mother-in-law, Kathy Lureen

He is preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Jean; daughter, Lisa Nihill; and brother, Brian Chadwick.
