Life Reflections

Mr. Ollie Lucious McGee, III
"BIG O"

Ollie was born August 8, 1969, in Wayne County Detroit, Michigan to Ollie, Jr. and Arletha McGee. Ollie is the second child born of four children. Both parents preceded him in death. He also had two sisters, Jackie and Ynett, who preceded him in death.

Ollie accepted Christ as Lord and Savior at an early age while he was a member of Greater Grace Temple in Detroit Michigan. He later continued the faith joining St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Steve Dennis. Ollie moved to Yazoo, MS from his home at age 19. He received his early childhood education in Wayne County Schools in Detroit Mi and furthered his education in MS where he attended Hinds Community College in Utica MS; there he graduated and received his degree in culinary arts.

He joined a dance group called The Untouchables. They traveled around performing at different venues and participated in various competitions all around MS. Later, his love for music led him to becoming a DJ. He was known to family and friends as "DJ Big O".

Leaving to cherish his legacy: two daughters: Kaiya McGee Walker (Alexis) of Jackson, MS and Lilandra McGee of Yazoo City, MS; one son: Ollie McGee, IV of Wichita, KS; one sister: Anna McGhee Taylor (Santana); six grandchildren: Jereco, Jr., Harmonie, Hakeem, Wilma, Baylee, and Gabriel; one nephew: Atreyuwis McGee (Latricia); six god-brothers: John Moe Bland, Sean LaGrange, Kenyatta and Kione Zimmerman and Benjamin Sims; one god-sister: Lisa Cooper; his Biltmore & UBA family; Mason brothers, his aunts, uncles, cousins that are descendants of his McGee and Newton family; and a host of friends.

Tributes

To My Brother "Buddha"

As I look back at the memories, I can say I have no regrets. We spent almost every day together laughing, joking around, and watching WWE. I remember me fussing at you all the time and you would say "I'm the Oldest." Our time together was always spent like it was our last since we had already lost so many family members already. We knew to take lots of pictures and spend birthdays and holidays together and to take advantage of the time we had; I still wasn't ready to lose you. The day before you gained your wings you were at the house hanging out with us waiting to hit up your favorite store with your brother-in-law Santana. You were picking with Ashley and playing with Aeriala Boogie night. I'm going to miss you so much because you were a part of my life for 44 Years and I still have no regrets. What I do have is faith believing that you're in a better place and in knowing that I know I can heal through this and help your children heal too. I will never forget you Buddha; as they say, "You know legends never die." Until we meet again. I love you.

Dear Brother-in-law

You will be missed. You taught me a lot. I want you to know that your sister will be fine. I will always take care of her and our family. Love you bro... Santana

Daddy

You always taught us how to be strong, but you never taught us how to live in this world without you. Our father is a man like no other; he gave us life, nurtured us, held us, dress us, shouted at us, kiss us, spoiled us, but most importantly he loved us unconditionally and that we will forever cherish every time we think of you our heart is filled with pride. and in laughter and in sorrow in sunshine and thought the rain i know you're watching over us. It's going to be hard waking up every day knowing you're no longer a phone call way this pain runs deep for us. I know you can feel our tears and you don't want us to cry but yet our heart is broken because you weren't supposed to be leave us, but we will find the strength to live on. We love you dad, and you will forever and always be missed!

Love your kids, Kiaya ,Lilandra & Ollie
