

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

OBITUARY

Frank Hawkins Deshawn Brabham was born September 29, 1995 in Atlanta Georgia. His birth was celebrated as he joined his parents Sherry and McArnold Brabham Jr., his big brother Mac and later Aramis.

Frank spent his early years in Emerson, Georgia and later moved to Rockmart, Georgia where he enjoyed the typical small town country life full of outdoor activities with his big brothers who he loved and adored.

After the death of his grandfather, his namesake, the family moved to Saylor Park. Frank attended both public and private schools where he was actively involved in sports...his favorite was wrestling and basketball. He later decided to attend Job Corp in Flint Michigan where he received his high school diploma and apprenticeship in printing. After graduation Frank returned to Saylor Park, a place he called "home". The relaxed lifestyle of the neighborhood seemed to fit Frank quite well. He enjoyed walking around talking to everyone and making friends. Frank was employed at UPS, Securitas and Zwanenberg Food Group.

Frank received his wings on September 29, 2021. He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother Sherry Hawkins (Brabham), his brothers McArnold Brabham III and Aramis Brabham, his friend that was "like a brother" Kenny Wade, and his "other" father Conrado Sanchez.
