In loving memory of Clint Ryan Patterson. Clint is survived by his common law Jackson Jacobson; his 3 children Layla, Leland, and Katie Brightnose; his mother Rhonda Robinson; his father Leo Patterson Sr.; his brothers Sandy and Denetta Patterson; Leo Jr and Amanda Patterson; and Russel Greives; his grandmother Della Bee; his nephews Zander, Zack, Zane, Zale, and Brock; his nieces Colleen, Leeanna, and Jackie; as well as numerous aunties, uncles, and cousins.

Clint was predeceased by grandfather Alexander Patterson; grandmother Juliet Patterson; Grandfather Lawrence Crain; and cousin Amy Patterson.

Clint was born Friday, January 31, 1992 in Flin Flon Manitoba to Rhonda Robinson and Leo Paterson. Clint was the youngest of three siblings and his older brothers Sandy and Leo Jr, who will truly miss their little brother "Lil foot" they loved him so much! He loved to spend time with his Mother who will miss and love him so dearly. He grew up in Sherridon Manitoba. Where he attended grade school until he graduated to grade 9 then he attended high school at F.C.I in Cranberry Portage, MB where he would meet his first love Barbra Brightnose and they had three beautiful children Layla, Leland and Katie. Clint loved his children they were his pride and joy. Clint moved to Lloydminster, AB to stay with his Auntie's Ernestine and Aline. He worked while he lived in Lloydminster. He had a dream to one day be a pro chef. He was kind and generous a joy to be around made everyone he was with laugh uncontrollably. He had a great sense of humor. He has numerous cousins and friends that'll forever miss and love him. He loved to be with his Dad he would go guiding with him for Kississing Lake Lodge it was quite the adventure for him but enjoyed spending time with his father. He loved to be with family. He loved his parents unconditionally. They'll forever love and miss him. He'll forever be loved and missed by all that knew him. He was a very loving person. His laughter and happy memories will live on in our hearts. Until we meet again "Lil Foot".

Clint passed away unexpectedly Saturday July 10, 2021 in Winnipeg, Manitoba at the age of 29 years. Clint had a heart of gold, always thinking of others before himself. He will be deeply missed.
