Her Story

Beth Milton, affectionately called Betty, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and aunt. Beth leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and devotion. Born in Savannah, Georgia, on June 2, 1955. She was the third of four children of the late William and Rebecca Milton Sr.

Beth was educated in the Savannah Chatham County Public School System. Beth attended Savannah State College where she majored in fashion and design. As a fashion designer, she designed and sewed her own clothes. Beth was an avid shopper and cook. She was famously known for her red rice and corn bread. Every job that Beth worked, she was a truly committed employee. In her free time, she LOVED doing Sudoku puzzles.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William Milton Sr. and Rebecca Milton; her siblings William Milton Jr., Matilda Simmons; and her beloved son, Yusef White.

On Sunday, October 26, 2025, the chariot came, and Beth Milton peacefully boarded, leaving this earthly realm to be with her loving Savior.

Beth's memory will be lovingly cherished by her devoted children: Teyonna Milton, Trae (Deeaquanita) Milton Sr. She is also survived by her beloved sisters Rochelle Elmore and Sandra (Lawrence) Williams Jr. Her legacy continues through seven cherished grandchildren and seven beloved great-grandchildren: Mo'Niqua Milton, Trae Milton, Jr, Tra'Keira Milton, Yuriah Milton, Rocquelle Haley, Avari Nevals, and Travore Milton. Beth will also be fondly remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends who will forever hold her in their hearts.

Footprints in the Sand

One night in a dream,
I walked with the Lord
by the beach.

There were two footprints,
mine and the Lord's.

But during tough times,
I just saw mine and I wondered why.

So I asked the Lord,
"Why leave me alone when I was down?"

The Lord said, "My precious child,
I never left you
during the times of trial and suffering.

When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."
