

To My Husband

*When we get to the end
of our lives together, the house
we had, the cars we drove, the things we had won't matter.*

What will matter, is that I had you and you had me.

*Raul T.
"Rudy" Garcia*

1956 ~ 2025

Raul T. Garcia, known by all as Rudy, was born March 30, 1956, in Phoenix, Arizona to Perfecto and Ignacia (Treveno) Garcia. They made their way to Oklahoma in 1960, and Rudy and his 14 siblings were raised in southwest Oklahoma. After attending school in Olustee Rudy married Naomi Lopez on October 22, 1982. Together they raised three children, Rudy Eugene, Terry, and Crystal Dawn. Rudy's grandest treasures were his family. He was the family jokester and loved to collect antiques.

Rudy worked most of his adult life in concrete construction but at heart, he was a musician. As an avid accordionist, and bass guitar player, Rudy was in his natural element.

In their retirement, Rudy was always eager to set up Naomi's musical sets for her vocal performances. Rudy passed from this life on January 4, 2025, at the age of 68.

His parents, Perfecto and Ignacia; six brothers; and three sisters preceded him in death. Rudy's warm and jovial spirit will live on in his wife of 42 years, Naomi; children, Rudy Eugene Garcia, Terry Garcia and wife, Heather, and Crystal Dawn Garcia; 22 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; brothers, Perfecto Garcia, Ruben Garcia, and Robert Garcia; sisters, Mary Lou Garcia and Lilly Wolfe; and a host of nieces and nephews.
