

Doyle Gene Webb, 74, passed away in the care of his loving family on Wednesday, April 15th at his home in Twin Falls, Idaho. Doyle was born on May 15th, 1951, to Howard and Roberta Webb. He was the oldest of his siblings, Sharon (Rocky) Dedman, Blainda (Michael) Owens, Patsy (Bryce) Romans, and D'von Webb.

At the age of 18, Doyle joined the United States Navy. He was a dedicated air traffic controller in the towers during the Vietnam War. He was stationed in Alameda, California, when not in the ocean on the USS Ticonderoga (CVA-14).

With his first wife, Doyle had four children: Doyle Webb Jr, Darren (Boone) Webb, David (Melissa) Webb, and Stephanie (Kenneth) Wood.

He spent 33 wonderful years with his second wife, Susan Boehm-Webb, and together they share two children, Delilah (Rachael) Webb and Elizabeth Webb.

Doyle enjoyed fishing and camping in his younger years. Later in life, he loved working in his yard and spending time with his "Saphyre, my Rose", a moniker for his granddaughter. Doyle will always be remembered as funny, witty, and kind. He was always creative and resourceful, "it's only broken when dad can't fix it".

Doyle was preceded in death by his loving mother and father, as well as his sister Blainda and her husband Michael; he was also preceded in death by one grandson, Donovan. Doyle is survived by his wife, Susan, his 6 children, and his 14 grandchildren.
