Life Reflections

Charles Edward Williams, affectionately known to all as “Big C,” was born on April 16, 1967, the beloved son of Isiah “Lightening” Williams and Shirley Ballard Williams. He departed this life to be with the Lord, leaving behind a legacy of love, hard work, and cherished memories. He grew up in the local community and was a proud graduate of Sumter High School’s Class of 1986.

At a young age, Charles accepted Christ as his personal Savior and joined the Orangehill R.U.M.E. Church, where his foundation of faith was built and nurtured.

Known for his remarkable dedicating and strong work ethic, Charles spent over 20 years as a valued employee at Bosch, before dedicating another 19 years of faithful service to the Target Distribution Center. Outside of his professional life, Charles was a true automotive enthusiast who had a deep passion for working on cars - a talent and hobby he shared generously with family and friends alike. Known for his sharp tongue and even sharper sense of humor, he loved to joke, tease, and keep everyone laughing. His way of showing love wasn’t always conventional, but it was genuine, and those closest to him knew they were deeply cared for.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories, his loving children: Elexcis Williams of Columbia, SC and Da’Shaun Williams of Florence, SC; his beloved grandson, Easton Jackson of Columbia, SC; his devoted sisters: Dorothy (James) Johnson, Christine (Timothy Daney) Williams, and Lakeisha (Latroy) Kinder all of Sumter, SC; cherished mother of children and grandson, Barbara of Florence, SC; dear friend, Miranda Locklear; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Isiah and Shirley Ballard Williams; a brother, Calvin Williams; maternal grandparents, Mathew and Addie Canty Ballard; paternal grandparents, Isiah and Helen Garrett Williams; uncles: Mathew, David, Leroy, Prince, Wesley, Timothy, Robert, James, Ernest, Curtis and Alphonso; aunts: Lila Mae, Dorothy, Alice, Evelyn and Atlean.

In Loving Memory of Our Brother

A brother's love is woven through our lives,
A steady truth that deep within us thrives.
You brought us laughter, dynamic and free,
The brightest branch upon our family tree.

We hold the line for you, we stand as one,
Remembering everything that you have done.
Your sisters keep your torch lit in the dark,
An endless flame, a beautiful, bright spark.

Forever Loved, Forever Honored

Your Sisters

A TRIBUTE FROM YOUR CHILDREN

Forever In Our Hearts

Dad, your hands were built for hard work,
Your heart was built for us.
You carried our burdens without complaint
and gave your all because you loved us.

Your laughter fill every room,
Your jokes could brighten our day.
Even when life was heavy,
You always found a reason to smile.
You taught us strength through your actions,
Kindness through your example,
And love through every sacrifice you made
Without ever asking for anything in return.

Though our hearts are broke,
We find comfort in knowing
We were blessed beyond measure
To call you Dad.
Your love will forever guide us,
Your laughter will forever echo,
And your legacy will live on through us.

Until we meet again,
We will carry your name with pride,
Love each other the way you loved us,
And thank God every day
For the gift of being your children.
Forever your son and daughter,
We love you always
