

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Ricky Robinson was born March 21, 1953 in Wilder, Georgia to Corine Robinson his dearly departed mother.

Ricky was 1 of 4 children. He was preceded in death by his sister Patricia Patterson.

Ricky was raised in Mt. Auburn along with his siblings. He formed many great relationships, friendships, and the unbreakable bond with "THE ALLEY GANG".

Ricky attended Taft High School. He later obtained his GED.

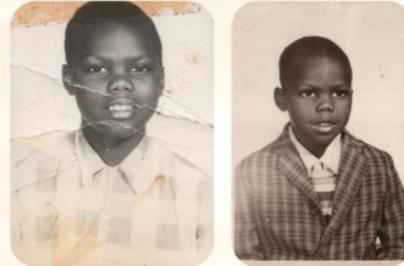

He loved working out, swimming, and enjoying time with family and friends.

Ricky also loved to travel. He was known for taking yearly trips to New Orleans to celebrate Mardi Gras.

"Big Rick" was the life of the party, "Big Homie" on the grill and a culinary king, known for his delicious deep-fried turkey enjoyed by many during Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Ricky was a loving brother, uncle, and a great friend. His laugh is unforgettable.

Ricky leaves to cherish his memory, his sister Venita Robinson (Jerry), brother Naaman (JoAnn), nieces, nephews and a host of very close friends.
