

Flower Bearers

Tina Patterson, Debbie Page, Belynda Clayton, Nikki Fort, Peggy Lewis, Sherretta WhiteFols, Jaylynn Evans, and Quis Evans

Casket Bearers

Devian Williams, Charles Evans, James Evans, William T. Evans, Chris Marshall,
Jason Crawford, John Lee, and Mark Benson

Repast

Martin Luther King Center
300 West Martin Luther King
Muskogee, Oklahoma

Acknowledgment

The family of Doris Ann Marshall would like to thank everyone for the kind expressions. May God continue to bless each of you is our prayer. The kind words, flowers, gifts, cards, and food. Whatever the part you have played in bringing comfort to the family and we thank you for everything you have contribute to this family.

Comfort, Care and Understanding

"Concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not..."

549 South 6th Muskogee, OK 74401 (918) 6875510
1601 Northwood Drive Okmulgee, OK 74447 (918) 7562233
1414 North Norfolk Tulsa, OK 74106 (918) 5922233
www.biglowfunerals.com

“The Life of...”

Doris Ann Marshall

Doris Ann Marshall, a woman whose life was a testament to faith, service, and profound love, was called home to rest early Sunday morning, November 23, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was 70 years old.

Born on May 10, 1955, to the late Willie B. and Videla Evans, Doris was raised with a strong foundation of love and wisdom on Hartford Street in the southside of Muskogee. It was there that her compassionate spirit was first nurtured by a closeknit community of neighbors and friends.

Doris accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age at Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the tutelage of Rev. James McDaniel. It was in that sacred space that she discovered her divine gifts: a beautiful, strong singing voice and a natural talent for playing the piano. These talents were not for her own glory but were dedicated entirely to the Lord's service throughout her life. She graduated from Carter G. Woodson High School in Tullahassee with the class of 1973, having also attended Manual Training High School.

Doris was a lifelong servant, always ready to lend her musical gifts wherever they were needed—whether for church services, weddings, funerals, or community musicals, even as recently as a couple of weeks ago. She played the piano and ministered in music for numerous churches, including Union Baptist, Wagoner; Mt. Zion Baptist Church; St. John Baptist Church, Gibson Station; Fountain Baptist Church; and many others throughout the community.

Professionally, Doris extended her servant heart to others, working over the years at Bios, MARC, and most recently at Incor. She poured herself into her work; her patients cherished her and often considered her part of their family. To many, she was far more than an employee; she was a maternal figure. Doris possessed a vibrant personality that effortlessly lit up any room. In a single breath, she could offer maternal guidance, evoke laughter with her infectious smile and sharp sense of humor, or tell you exactly how things were going to be—always rooted in love and wisdom.

Family was the epicenter of Doris's world. She poured everything she had into her children, grandchildren, and her "baby," her loving husband Charles.

Doris leaves behind a legacy of selfless love and cherished memories. She is lovingly remembered by her devoted husband of 28 years, Charles Marshall, of the home; her son, Vernon Evans (Shalonda); her daughter, LaChauna Adams; and her bonus children: Charlotte Nails (Rodney), Charles Marshall Jr., Chris Marshall (Joanna), Cherhonda Butler (Raisher), and Charo Brown (Keith). She was a beloved grandmother to six grandchildren, Briana Jackson, Devion Williams, Vernecia Evans, Mylauna McHenry, Robert Doxey, and Ken'Nasha Curry; nine bonus grandchildren, Cristal, C. J., Chela, Chante, Jamal, Christian, Skylar, R. J., and Riashaun; and 38 greatgrandchildren. Doris is also survived by a special sisterinlaw, Charlene Evans; special nephews, James Earl, Charles, and William T.; special cousin, Angela Jackson; special friends Cynthia Webber, LaCreta (Lynn) Reed, Belynda Clayton, Tina Patterson, Sheretta WhiteFolks, and Debbie Page; along with a host of extended nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends whom she loved dearly.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents, Willie B. and Videla; her son, Brandon Jermaine ("BJ"); her brother, James Earl; and her great-grandson, Josiah Murphy. Her presence will be profoundly missed, but her song, her spirit, and the love she shared will resonate in the hearts of those she touched forever.

Order of Service

Saturday, December 6, 2025 The Tenth Hour

Antioch, The Temple of Hope

500 W. Broadway | Muskogee, OK

Pastor Marlon Coleman, Officiating

Pastor William Brown, Eulogist

- Minister of Music ..... Bro. Hezakah Buchanan
- Processional.....Funeral Directors, Ministers and Family
- Prayer of Assurance.....Pastor Jamie Powell
- Central Missionary Baptist Church
- Reading of God's
- Old Testament Reading .....Bro. Earl Jones
- New Testament Reading .....Pastor David Ragsdale Jr.
- Praise Dance.....Mylauna McHenry
- “The Storm Is Over Now”
- Obituary Read Silently
- Remarks.....Please Limit to 2 Minutes
- Tribute In Song..... LaCauna Adams & Karun Hall
- Video Tribute
- Tribute In Song.....Briana Jackson
- Words of Comfort ..... Pastor William Brown
- Fountain Baptist Church
- “The Sacred Farewell” ..... Keith D. Biglow Funeral Directors Inc.

Final Resting Place

Sandtown Cemetery—Wagoner, Oklahoma