

Gavin X. Kudick

November 2, 2009 – November 24, 2024

Gavin Xavier Kudick, 15, of Luxemburg, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, November 24, 2024, from complications with Muscular Dystrophy, he was surrounded by his family. Gavin was born on November 2, 2009, in Green Bay to John R. Kudick and Evelyn Torres. Gavin was a Freshman at Luxemburg Casco High School

Gavin did not let his Muscular Dystrophy define him. He was smart, funny, had a sharp tongue, and a great sense of humor. He always spoke his mind and had a big heart. Gavin loved playing video games and seeing movies. He was always willing to tell you about the latest movie he saw, or who the characters were in his games. His favorite character was Batman. Like Batman, Gavin faced challenges through his years, but he found his way through them. One of Batman's quotes is "It's not who I am underneath, but what I do that defines me." Gavin made his family laugh, kept us on our toes with his questions and sarcasm. He left an imprint on us that we will never forget.

Gavin is survived by his father John Kudick; mother Evelyn Torres; two brothers and one sister, Gabriel, Draven, and Nova; maternal grandmother Lucy Lopez; paternal grandparents Richard and Debbie Kudick; further survived by his, aunts and uncles, cousins, who will miss him more than words can say.

Gavin is preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Nelson Lopez.

Friends may call between 3:30 – 6:30 pm on Monday, December 2, 2024, at McMahan Funeral Home, Luxemburg. Closing prayer service at 6:30 pm, with Rev. Daniel Schuster officiating. The family would like to thank the Luxemburg Rescue Squad, and the staff of Aurora Hospital and St. Vincent Hospital for their service and support.
