

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, in life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Memories of Our Brother

How well I do remember all the special times we had as we were raised side by side sharing good times, sharing bad. Sometimes we would disagree but always made up in the end, but as we grew to be adults we became the best of friends. Then you heard the voice of Jesus gently calling from on high. He was holding out his loving arms but I could not say "goodbye". So I said "see you later" Dear Brother, wait for me in the beauty of God's heaven where the best is yet to be.

Obituary

Charles departed his earthly body on the early morning of March 27th, while sleeping. He was preceded in death by his loving wife Crystal, his mother Geraldine, father Charles Sr., Grandfather Samuel and his sister China.

He grew up in Over the Rhine and attended Taft High School. He worked for several different restaurants as a cook. More than cooking, he loved to entertain people and was often found singing and dancing anywhere someone would watch and cheer him on. He could be found singing at all family gatherings and local clubs.

Family was very important to Papa and he loved his family most. He left his 12 children to cherish his memory, Deborah, Eddie, Vaughn, Geraldine, Gianna, Caletia, Tonya, Keisha, Ebony, Lanetta, Ricki, and Yocey; his loving grandmother, Mary; and his 10 siblings, Ethel, Stanton, Fannie, Samuel (Lisa), Latonio, Latrice (Tyrone), Laniel (Reeka), Troy, Tasha (Vernon) and Gina. He also leaves a host of grandchildren, great-grandchild, aunts, uncles, and friends that will truly miss his spirit but will cherish their memories.

Psalm 37:5

God has a reason for allowing things to happen.
We may never understand his wisdom, but we simply have to trust his will.
