Arlyne Gray December 16, 1933 - July 23, 2025

Arlyne Gray, a beloved matriarch and woman of unwavering faith, passed away peacefully at the age of 91. Mary Arlyne was born on December 16, 1933, in Talladega, Alabama, and lovingly raised by her parents Willie and Annie Mae Gunn. Arlyne was known throughout her life for her strength and devotion to family.

In 1977, Arlyne reconnected with her childhood friend Phillip Gray, a bond that had begun when they were just kids in Alabama. Their friendship grew into love, and they were married in 1980, and remained together until his passing.

Arlyne moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a dedicated nursing assistant across multiple healthcare facilities. While her professional work was meaningful, her greatest joy came from helping nurture the generations that arrived from her three children Tyrone, Phyllis and Michael.

Her spiritual journey began in the Muslim faith, but in the late 1990s, she began her walk with Christ and became an active member of Christian Community Church of God on West Baltimore Street. Her faith became a cornerstone of her life and legacy.

A well-known and respected figure on Mulberry Street, Arlyne played a central role in raising her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and even great-great-grandchildren. Her home was open to those who needed a place to stay or a home cooked meal.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Phillip Gray, her children Tyrone, Phyllis, and Michael, and her grandson Sidney Frazier.

Arlyne leaves to cherish her memory her grandchildren Belinda Frazier, Michele Urquhart, Regina Frazier Wright, Tylise Watts and John Frazier; her great-grandchildren Devon Boyette, Travis Boyette, Kristen Boyette, Marie Frazier, Glen Frazier, Sharice Frazier, Tyrone Urquhart, Jr., Michael Green, Jr., Dream Smith, Sidney Frazier, Myani Smith/Davis, Tristan Urquhart, Zion Wright, Angel Wright, Judith Wright, Neimiah Wright, Esdras Wright, Titus Wright, Susanna Wright, Solomon Wright, Hazel Wright, Zakiya Johnson, Eric Purvis and Za'rae. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other beloved family members and friends who were blessed to know her.

The family would like to express their heartfelt thanks for all the prayers, calls, and expressions of sympathy during this time. Arlyne's spirit will continue to live on through all those she touched.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR Beloved
