LIFE HIST

Obituary

Jeffery M. Brickus, Sr., 67, of Coatesville, PA, departed this life suddenly on Saturday, March 7, 2026, at his residence.

Born in Coatesville, he was the son of the late Ernest Brickus, Sr., and Edith Hines Brickus.

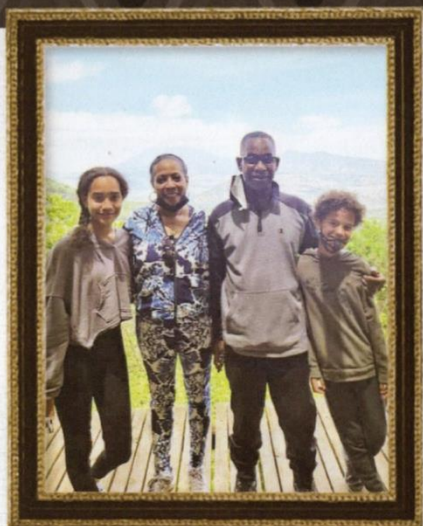

Jeff was a devoted husband to Shari Lynn (Baker) Brickus, with whom he shared 43 years of marriage.

TORY

He was a graduate of Coatesville Area Senior High School, class of 1976. Jeff worked in the air conditioning and heating industry, specializing in HVAC.

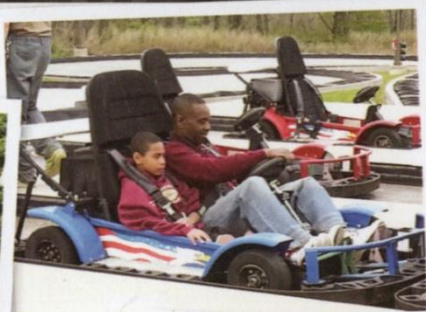

His passions extended beyond his profession; Jeff had a profound love for motorcycles, especially his cherished red Goldwing. He found joy in the nostalgic tunes of oldies music. His love for music was an integral part of his life, still burning CDs to listen to his favorite songs. Jeff was also an avid shopper. He loved to shop for anything and everything, and indulging in his love for cheese, often taking trips to CowTown for the finest selections. He also had a particular fondness for “flat wings.”

Jeff’s straightforward nature and direct approach to life earned him respect and admiration. He was a mentor to many young people, guiding them with knowledge and wisdom. Family was central to his life, and he cherished spending time with his grandchildren, who brought him immense joy and pride.

Jeff is survived by his beloved wife, Shari L. Brickus of Coatesville; loving sons, Jeffery Brickus Jr. (Jessica) of Harleysville, Tyree J. Brickus Sr. (Rena) of King of Prussia, and Lamar A. Brickus (Erika) of Coatesville; his grandchildren: Jaeden, McKenna, Greyson, Tyree Jr., Tai’lea, Tymar, Tailynn, Clarence, Christian, and Tatyana; his siblings: Bruce Brickus of Manhattan, NY, TerriLyn Brickus, Larry “Muscles” Brickus (VanDora), Marty Majors all of Coatesville; brothers-in-law, Herbert Baker (Linda), Mark Baker (Chanelle), Trent Baker (Jennifer) and a host of niece, nephews, cousins and friends.

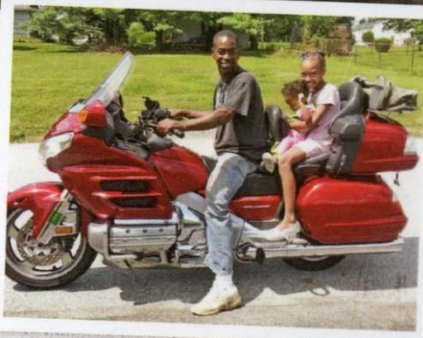

In addition to his parents, Jeff was preceded in death by one brother, Ernest "Poochie" Brickus, Jr.

Jeff will be deeply missed. His memory will remain a source of inspiration for those who knew him.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
