

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

The Acknowledgement

The Moore Family would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to the staff of Seven Areas Senior Living of Clifton. We also extend our sincere gratitude to the care team, with special thanks to Hospice of Cincinnati-Blue Ash, for the loving and compassionate care they provided Mom during the final chapter of her life.

We are deeply grateful to everyone who offered prayers, sent cards, or shared other expressions of sympathy. Your love and support have been a true blessing during this time of bereavement.

Please continue to keep us in your prayers, and may God bless each of you.

Known for Excellence. Trusted for Value.

Her Life Reflections

Glondora Hairston Moore was born June 11, 1936 in Cincinnati, Ohio, the only daughter of the late John Hairston and Bernice Smith. She departed this earth on December 18, 2025. Glondora accepted the Lord at an early age. She grew up in Cincinnati's West end community and graduated from the Old Woodward High School.

On May 23, 1953 she married the love of her life Shelby Everett Moore, a union that lasted 53 years until his passing. From this blessed union came five children. In 1962 the family became members of Zion Baptist Church. As a devoted member of Zion, Glondora served faithfully in the Senior Choir, the Chorale Ensemble, and the Missionary Society.

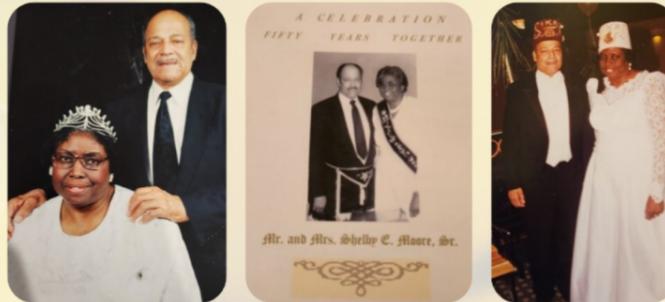

Determined and hardworking, she attended night classes at the University of Cincinnati earning a certificate in Accounting and Federal Income Taxation while working at the Internal Revenue Service. She also served with distinction as Worthy Matron of Golden Link # 91 of SINAI the Order of the Eastern Stars as well as a member of Imperial Court # 35 and the Doves Ensemble. Besides being involved in various organizations Glondora was a gifted seamstress. Her talents allowed her to produce wedding dresses for two of her daughters. She also made clothing for other family members and friends. After retiring from the IRS she worked part time as a seamstress at Dillard's Department store. In addition to Dillard's she worked briefly with Ride-Right & Peterson Transport.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Shelby Everett Moore, Sr.; her son Shelby Everett Moore, Jr., and son-in-law Dr. Richard Rhodes. Sister-in-law Catherine Moore, three brother's in-law Rev. William Freeman (Leona) George Moore (Alma) John Moore and a nephew George Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories and celebrate her life with 4 children and (spouses): Gwendolyn C. Rhodes, Bernetta M. (Gene) McMillan, Denise J. Graham, and Rodney W. Moore. She also leaves behind 12 grandchildren: Eric Robinson, Morey (Stephanie) Robinson, Jua McMillan, Maia (Richie) Stroud, Jamila McMillan, Malika Graham, Shelina Moore, Shannon, Rodney, Breanna, DeAndre and DeVon Matthews. 22 Great-grandchildren and 6 Great-great-grandchildren, Nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of relatives and friends. Special friends of the family Raymond Jeter, Leroy Robinson, Mark Love, DeAngelo Graham, and Cheryl Evans.
