

Appreciation

The family of the late Bishop Errol Campbell and the Guiding Light Church of Christ Apostolic wish to express our profound thanks and appreciation to everyone who have extended their support and offered acts of kindness during our time of bereavement. The Lord bless you continually for your prayers, thoughtfulness and concern.

Entombment

George Washington Memorial Park
Paramus, NJ

THE FERGUSON-RAYAM FUNERAL HOME

Andrew C. Ferguson Emmanuel D. Rayam
Executive Director • Owner COO • Owner
NJ Lic. No. 5202 • NY Lic. No. 14880 NJ Lic. No. 4720

80 Midland Avenue • Wallington, NJ 07057
Tel: (973) 500-4330 • Fax: (973) 506-1556
Email: info@FRFuneralHome.com
www.FergusonRayamFH.com

Alpha
 SEPTEMBER 10, 1955

Omega
 APRIL 9, 2021

Uncle Errol, uncle Owen to his niece's and nephews while big brother or brother Owen to his siblings, to close relatives and friends a simple Errol or Owens, but to us he was a family man, who held his ground put away differences and aimed for love, unity and peace. He was a man who sort to look for the best in people and was willing to give chances, a stuck to his belief man, who held on to God's unchanging hands, inspite of all the troubles and disappoint that life threw at him. He encouraged others while he tried to keep himself encouraged. A man of vision a man of hope a man of faith, May God continue to bless his family, relatives and friends, in Jesus name Amen.

In the Great Triumphant Morning

1) In the great triumphant morning,
When we hear the Bridegroom cry,
And the dead in Christ shall rise,
We'll be changed to life immortal,
In the twinkling of an eye,
And meet Jesus in the skies.

Refrain

We shall all rise to meet Him,
We shall all go to greet Him,
In the morning when the dead in Christ shall rise
We shall all rise to meet Him,
We shall all go to greet Him,
And shall have the marriage supper in the skies.

2) In the great triumphant morning,
What a happy time 'twill be,
When the dead in Christ shall rise,
When the Lord descends in glory,
Sets His waiting children free,
And we meet Him in the skies.

3) In the great triumphant morning,
When the harvest is complete,
And the dead in Christ shall rise,
We'll be crowned with life immortal,
Christ and all the loved ones meet,
In the rapture in the skies.

4) In the great triumphant morning,
All the kingdom we'll possess,
Then the dead in Christ shall rise,
Reign as kings and priests eternal,
Under Christ forever blest,
After meeting in the skies.

Life's Railway to Heaven

1) Life is like a mountain railroad, with an engineer
that's brave;
We must make the run successful, from the cradle to
the grave;
Watch the curves, the fills, the tunnels; never falter,
never quail;
Keep your hand upon the throttle, and your eye upon
the rail.

Refrain

Blessed Savior, Thou wilt guide us,
'Till we reach that blissful shore;
Where the angels wait to join us
In Thy praise forevermore.

2) You will roll upgrades of trial; you will cross the bridge of strife;
See that Christ is your Conductor on this lightning
train of life;
Always mindful of obstruction, do your duty, never
fail;
Keep your hand upon the throttle, and your eye upon
the rail.

3) You will often find obstructions; look for storms of wind and rain;
On a fill, or curve, or trestle, they will almost ditch
your train;
Put your trust alone in Jesus; never falter, never fail;
Keep your hand upon the throttle, and your eye upon
the rail.

4) As you roll across the trestle, spanning Jordan's swelling tide,
You behold the Union Depot into which your train
will glide;
There you'll meet the Superintendent, God the Father, God the Son,
With the hearty, joyous, plaudit, "Weary pilgrim,
welcome home!"

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

BISHOP ERROL CAMPBELL

Bishop Errol Campbell

Sunrise: September 10, 1955

Sunset: April 09, 2021

Celebration Service

Saturday, May 01, 2021 @ 9:00 A.M.

Shiloh Apostolic Church Living Word Center
413 South 17th Street, Newark, NJ

Officiating Minister: Pastor Paul Charlton

Psalm 20:7 - Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

Moderator	Pastor Paul Charlton
Ministerial Procession
Family Procession
Opening Remark	Pastor Paul Charlton
Congregational Song	In The Great Triumphant Morning
Opening Prayer
1st Scripture Reading	Job 14:1-14
Tribute in Song	Sister Eula Hinds Mount
2nd Scripture Reading	1 Corinthians 15: 51-58
Ministerial Remarks	Evangelist Beverley Christian
Tribute in Song	Missionary Thompson
Family Tributes
Online Tributes
Song	Grace Assemby
Open Tributes
Eulogy & Acknowledgement
Selection
Sermon
Prayer for the Family
Congregational Song	Life’s Railway to Heaven
Recessional

Obituary

Bishop Errol Campbell was born on September 10, 1955 at Coffee Ridge in the District of Mount Moriah, St. Ann, to parents Sylvester and Gwendolyn Campbell. He was the third of thirteen children. His late wife of 40 years, Pastor Beverley Campbell went home to be with the Lord December 2018.

He achieved his primary education at the Mount Moriah Primary school. Being an ambitious person, he was not deterred by not attaining higher education. As a result, he pursued various courses over the years in order to enhance himself.

While many persons didn’t have the opportunity to grow up in an Apostolic home, Bishop described himself as being an “Apostolic baby.” His late father was an Apostolic and his mother who is in her 90’s is still a stalwart in the Apostolic faith. At the age of 7 years, Bishop was baptized in Jesus name in February 1963 at the Coffee Ridge Shiloh Apostolic church. He was passionate and zealous for the work of the Lord and as a result was ordained as a Deacon in 1980.

In 1987 he migrated to Belize to have a better life for himself and his family. Bishop continued his religious pursuits and was called to the pastoral ministry in 1990 where he served in the United Pentecostal Church of Belize.

The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord. Hence, Bishop and his family migrated from Belize to the United States in 1997. Bishop, and his late wife Pastor Beverley Campbell started the Grace Tabernacle Mount Zion Apostolic Church Inc. in Hackensack, NJ in 1997. The following year, he was ordained as a Bishop.

Bishop Campbell spread the Gospel in churches across New Jersey, New York and surrounding States. Up to the time before his passing, he was the pastor of the Guiding Light Church of Christ, Apostolic Inc. situated at 52 Gray Street, Newark, NJ.

Bishop was principled and committed in his personal walk with the Lord. He got up every morning between the hours of 2:30 a.m to 3:00 a.m. and spend hours in prayer, reading his Bible and singing. He strongly believed in fasting and would never allow a week to pass without embarking on this needed discipline. He loved the songs of Zion and could not be deterred even when he didn’t know the words and had to insert his own words. Bishop will be missed when the church reconvenes, as he will not be there to play the tambourine, sing loudly, praise and worship the Lord and dance across the floor.

Bishop Campbell is survived by his wife Evangelist Beverly Campbell, three children – Dane, O’neil and Petagaye, who he often referred to as my one daughter. He was blessed with four grandchildren whom he dearly loved – Jaylyn, Janelle, Shyenne, and Kymani. Also, to mourn his passing – his dear mother, Evangelist Gwendolyn Campbell, sisters, brothers, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, the Guiding Light families in NJ and GA, the Apostolic fraternity and numerous relatives and friends.

Sleep on beloved and take your rest. We love you but Jesus love you best.