"The best thing about memories is making them."

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

A Message From Heaven

Hi everyone!

I want to say a few things to you with love. If your tears are from sorrow, dry them please! Just know that I made it! God opened the door and said, "Hattie, my daughter, we've been expecting you!" Listen, that welcome was what I needed. Honestly, I am whole. I am home. I am truly well rested.

As I entered my new home, know that every single one of you came with me. You are right here resting against my heart, and you know my love for you will never fade.

When you see the sun, think of my smile, when it rains, think of the water in the pond. I hope that in the laughter my memory brings you in the middle of your grief, you know that is me saying, "yep, I'm still here."

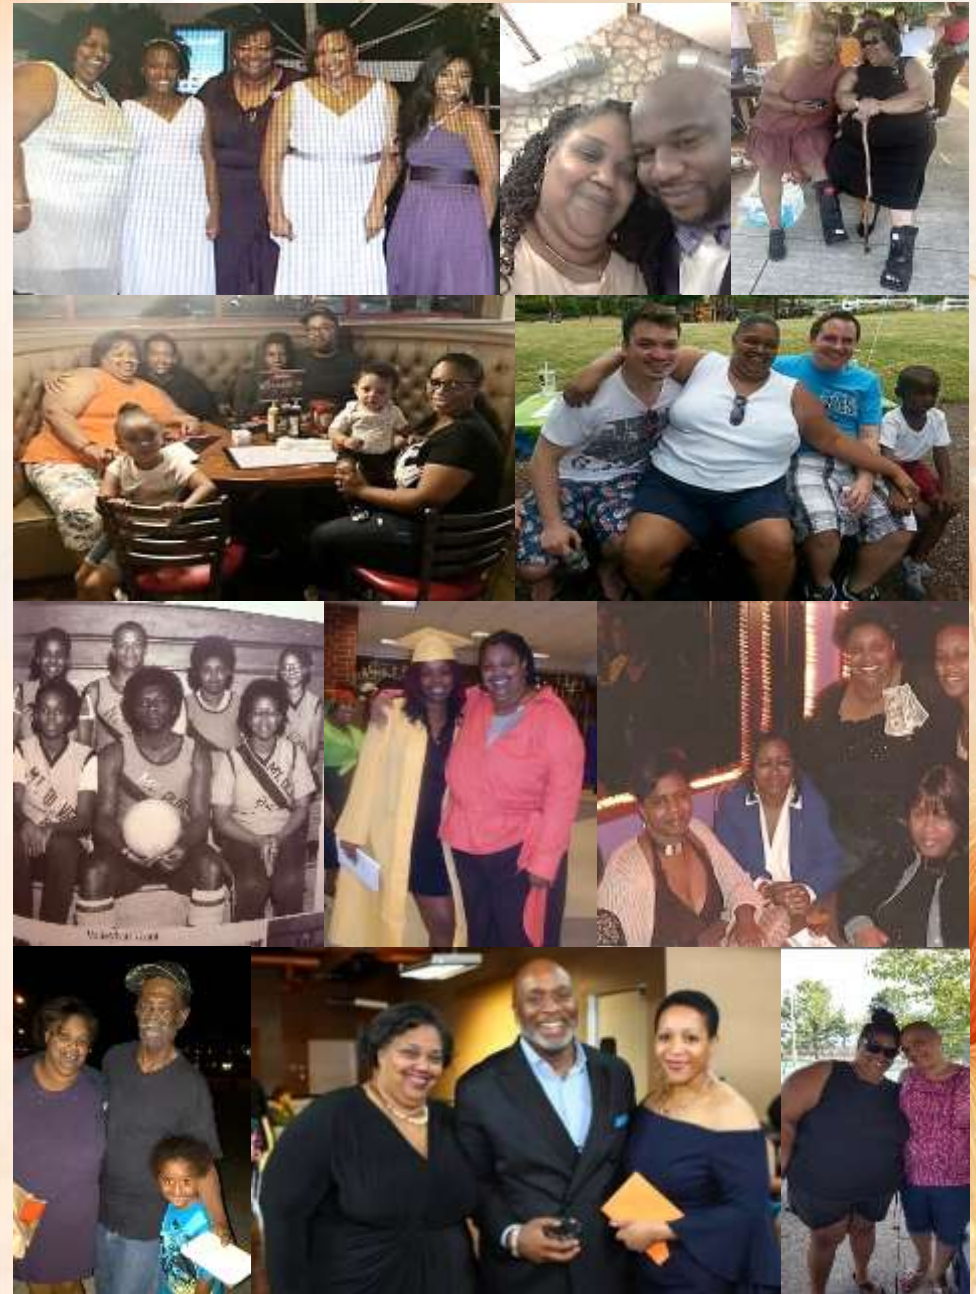

Please read this and know that I mean this: Take ALL of the pictures. Every holiday, every ordinary Tuesday, every silly face and new boot. Those moments are the wealth of our family, as memories and time are our most precious possession. So, in my physical absence capture every single one.

As the days go forward, come together as a family. Hold each other close. If someone crosses your mind, call them or send them a text. Hold the family close and hold on to your faith. God is watching over every single one of you, and He walks with you daily.

I have joined all of our loved ones and we are watching over each of you. Each day, each accomplishment, every prayer, we are listening and praying with you. Until He brings us all back together, know that I am near and I am at peace.

All my love - forever and beyond,
Hattie Louise Harris

"Loved beyond words, missed beyond measure."

"Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed, and very dear."
