

Keith M. Clark

September 29, 1955 – December 15, 2024

Keith M. Clark, 69, of Algoma, passed away at Green Bay Health Services on December 15, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer. Keith was born on September 29, 1955, to the late Ronald and Verna (Paape) Clark.

Keith worked as a salesman and as a mail carrier with the U.S. Postal Service through his life. When he was not working he was devoted to taking care of his parents, creating a safe and loving home for them. He had a love for playing dartball, golfing, and bowling. And let's not forget his passion for collecting Packer memorabilia.

Keith is survived by his siblings, Ron (Ginger) Clark, Randy (Debbie) Clark, Diane Clark, Terry (Patti Mulcahy) Clark, Lynn (Julie) Clark, Kevin (Cheryl) Clark; as well as by nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ronald and Verna Clark; sister, Debra Clark; and nephew, Jon Clark.

A Celebration of Life will take place for Keith in the spring of 2025, after which burial will take place in the Evergreen Cemetery. Kinnard Funeral & Cremation Services – Algoma is assisting the family. Online condolence messages may be shared at KinnardFCS.com.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Green Bay Health Services and Cari Watters for the care given to Keith.
