

An Angel

Have you seen an angel before? I have. She walked by faith, not by sight. Taught her kids no wrongs will equal right. Gave up her fun to raise her kids. Didn't ask for much but gave plenty. Taught us how to cook, clean and survive in life. Made fun for her kids with what little she had. A mother, woman, sister, friend, doctor, and therapist all in one. Whenever a problem came, she would never run. The greatest person with the best point of view. I never knew an angel until I met you.

-Robert Richardson

Mommy

To have you is the best blessing ever to a person. We have a bond that cannot ever be broken. The Lord above blessed you to receive and give out so much love. Your place with me is forever in my heart, even through heaven and earth, we are not apart. I ask of you to be in heaven and shine your light extremely bright through the day and the night. I hope you hear me when I call out to you. I'll always tell you that nobody could love me like you do. If there is such a thing as another lifetime, I'm praying every day for us to be together again in mine.

-Sheenay Richardson

Obituary

Carol Richardson was born on September 6, 1956, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Annie Richardson and Ernest Eason.

Carol was a beautiful woman who was firm, strong and gentle all at once. She loved cooking and having a clean space. She was passionate about helping others when it came to advice and being nurturing. She loved nurturing people so much that she became an RN to help those who could not help themselves. She thrived at being outgoing, honest, and strong all the time. She fought so many battles, and I am blessed she won the final one, and that is being with the Lord.

She has reunited in Heaven with the family members she would talk about most: her mother, father, maternal grandmother, and three brothers. She leaves behind on Earth her four children: Artez Richardson, Chanel Richardson, Robert Richardson, and Sheenay Richardson, along with two grandchildren: Aliyah and Antonio Richardson. She also leaves her siblings, three brothers and four sisters: Preston Richardson, Dexter Richardson, Leonard Richardson, Margareth Johnson, Annie Scott, Mary Richardson, and Yvonne Jackson; a host of nieces and nephews, other family members, and friends.

John 14: 1-3

*Let not your heart be troubled;
you believe in God, believe also in Me.
In My Father's house are many mansions;
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again and receive you to Myself;
that where I am, there you may be also.*
