

Butterfly Kisses

by John F. Connor

Don't cry for me, please don't be sad
Hold on to the memories of the times we both had
Don't dwell on dark thoughts, hold on tight to your wishes
Sending you hugs and butterfly kisses.

I walk beside you, I am there all day long
I am right here. But you think I am gone
You don't see me, but I can see you
Whatever the problems, I will help you get through.

I am the wind in your hair, the sand in your toes
Butterfly kisses that you feel on your nose
I am with you at sunrise and in the sunset
But you cannot see me, it's my one regret.

I sit right beside you when you are sad
And you look through the photos of times that we had
I watch you sleeping, I hold you so tight
Before I go, I kiss you goodnight.

I will watch over you from heaven above
Forever you will be a dear and true love
Hold on to your dreams and all of your wishes
Sending you hugs and butterfly kisses.

Linda Carol Hargrove Harris, 78, was lovingly welcomed through the gates of heaven on May 29, 2025. Linda was not just a mother and memaw but a cherished aunt and friend to many. Linda's heart was filled with joy when spending time with friends, singing, and dancing, yet it was the moments shared with her family that brought her the greatest happiness.

Born on November 28, 1947, in Waco, Texas to Thomas and Darnella (Merritt) Hargrove, Linda was the eldest of their two children. She shared a deep bond with her younger brother, Coleman Lynn Hargrove. Together, they created countless memories around the dining table, sharing stories over coffee and enjoying music with guitar in hand.

Linda attended University High School in Waco, Texas, where she met her soulmate, David Ray Harris Sr. Their youthful love blossomed, and they married on June 1, 1963. As they built their lives together, they welcomed two wonderful children: their son, David Ray Jr., in 1965, and their daughter, Tonya Annette, in 1967. Linda took immense pride in nurturing her children, watching them grow into remarkable individuals. Though their marriage faced its challenges, the enduring love between David and Linda remained a constant source of strength. They always found their way back to each other, reaffirming their bond time and again, until David's unexpected passing in 2020 which left a profound void in Linda's heart. Her legacy will live on in the love she shared and the memories she created with her family and friends.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents, Thomas and Darnella Hargrove; her love, David Ray Harris Sr; her brother, Coleman Hargrove; her daughter, Tonya Latham; her great-grandson, Landon Harris; and many other cherished family members.

She is survived by her son, David Harris Jr., and his wife Kim; niece Kathy Biles and her husband Leonard; son-in-law Raymond Latham; 13 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again, and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.
