In Loving Memory of

Deliah Rose Cook

April 28, 1969—April 10, 2024

Deliah Rose Cook was born on Monday, April 28, 1969. She was born at St Anthony's Hospital in The Pas, Manitoba. Deliah was biologically born to the late Leslie and Helen Cook. Soon after when she was five days old, Deliah was adopted by the late Joseph Young and Rosalie Wilson. Our mom Helen gave Deliah Rose to her brother Joe and Rosalie, it was one of the hardest decisions she had to make. Deliah was raised alongside her adopted siblings, brother Frederick (Guy) Young and sister Corrine (Lou Lou) Martin.

Deliah attended nursery and kindergarten at the Big Eddy Day School, and later went to Iskuneken School and Scott Bateman. As a young teenager, she would reconnect with her biological siblings and began to babysit her nieces and nephews, so their parents could attend to their jobs. She loved kids, she always had a way to make you feel special.

Deliah's hobbies were drawing, and she enjoyed playing soccer and baseball. She had a memorable laugh and enjoyed joking around with family and friends. Visiting family and friends was always important to her. She was often visiting around and sometimes get into a little trouble, with cousins and friends Theresa (Mac), Teddy, Banger, Archie, Guy and the rest of the Big Eddy Crew. She loved to listen to music, she always had music playing when she was home.

Our sister was blessed with two sons, the loves of her life, Leslie and Norman Cook. Later on, her common law partner Norman "Junkyard" Harris would part their ways, and she continued to raise her boys with the help of her mother Rosalie.

As she grew older, our sister made the decision to go back to school and get her grade 12 education from Kelsey Adult Learning Centre. One of her local jobs was working at The Pas Homeless Shelter, until her first stroke, then she was unable to go back due to health reasons. She enjoyed working with the people that she would meet at the shelter.

When she became a granny, she was so proud and adored her grandchildren Charisma, Charma, Liam, Zenon, Kyeza, Genisis and Classea. She would even watch her granddaughters Charisma and Charma on a regular basis even up to a few weeks ago, she loved when they would come and visit her.
