LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Eddie Wesley Carr Sr., a beloved father, grandfather, and outdoorsman, passed away surrounded by the love of his family. He was a man who found peace in the simple things – hunting, being outdoors, riding the country backroads, and most of all, spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Cecelia Courtney Carr, who passed away in 2023. He was also preceded in death by two of his children, Eddie Wesley Carr Jr. and Christie Crimm, as well as his siblings Doug Carr and Susan Carr.

Eddie is survived by his children, Casey Carr and her husband Derek Stelly, James Carr and his wife Blair Carr, and RaLee Stevens and her husband Danny Stevens. He is also survived by his siblings Carol Carr, Margorie Ameen, Janet Carr, and Rose Carr.

Eddie leaves behind a legacy of love through his grandchildren: Micheal Stevens, Eddie Carr III, Melissa Stevens, Gracie Carr, Robert Carr, Melanie Stevens, Adalyn Boling, and Eli Stelly. He was also blessed with two great-grandchildren, Aislynn Plaisance and Zaine Plaisance.

Eddie will be remembered for his quiet strength, deep love for family, and his lifelong connection to nature. His memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
