TO MY Wife

To my lovely Cookie,
I thought of you today, but that is nothing new
I thought about yesterday
And all days before that too.
I think about you in silence
I often speak your name
All I have are memories
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake
From which I'll never part
God has you in his arms
I have you in my heart.
I will see you again one day
Have a plate ready for me
With your BBQ Ribs and sweet potatoes
Don't forget your famous Iced Tea
But with half the sugar because we all know it's too sweet!

Love Always, Walter or as you would say "Mr.
Wright, Mr. Wright" all loud and stuff

THE WORLD'S BEST GODMOTHER

Godmother
Life can be funny
People come and go
but some last the distance
and watch as you grow
Those are the people who capture your heart and we want you to know
That you've left your mark on our spirit and soul
You're one in a million and a diamond in our eyes
You're the worlds best godmother
Thanks for being you, truly a prize!

We Love you forever, your god kids
Snax, Butt-Butt, Cree, and Lauryn

Grandma

You taught me how to ride a bike
You taught me how to pray
You taught me to keep god in sight
And look forward to better days
I wasn't ready when you left
I needed one more minute
I know it's time for a new chapter
But I just wish you were in it
I hope you come and visit when my days get long
Just know I'll never forget your voice,
Because it's my favorite song

You one and only
Granddaughter

Mom
UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN...

*We think about you always
 We think about you still Impossible to forget
 And a timeless heart to feel.*

*We hold you close to our hearts
 That is where you will remain
 To walk and guide us throughout life
 Until we meet again.*

*You are the best to ever do it
 And known for keeping us sane
 We hope you come and visit
 Because life will truly never be the same.*

*Your loving children,
 Wanda and Roc*

Sharon a.k.a "Cookie" was and still is the most loving, caring, and generous woman you would ever meet. She took care of everyone she encountered. From running her neighborhood on Orchard Street, to her church friends and colleagues, everyone felt welcome and at home with her. Although she spread her love, still, her family or God kids were not the ones to mess with. "Cookie" was a free spirited, joke telling, dancing, fighter who simply stole the show when she walked in the room. She loved cooking, sending her daily text (which seemed to always be right on time), Walmart, Marshalls, and making sure everyone around her was okay. AMAZING is the only word that can be properly used to describe Sharon. This ball of joy and excitement will truly be missed.

She is survived by husband, Walter Wright; Children, Shawanda Benson and Rahman Ali; Granddaughter, Jermira Fitchett; Sisters, Shirley Benson, Jacqueline Benson, and Betty Smith; Brothers, Rossevelt Smith, Andrew Benson, and Calvin Benson; Mother-in-law, Shirley Ingram; Father-in-laws, Walter Wright Sr. and James Ingram; Brother-in-law, Bernard Ingram; Nephews, Micheal Benson, Andrew Benson, Aaron Butler and James Williams; Nieces, LaJuan Montgomery, Chenaya Smith, Felicia Butler and Andrea Mitchell. God Children Jaden (Snax), Mike (Butt-Butt), Lauren and Cree, and a host of great nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Sharon WRIGHT

Sharon Darlene Wright (better known as "Cookie") was born May 26th, 1957, to the late Carolyn Smith and Amos Benson in Baltimore, MD. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools where she later earned her Maryland State High School Diploma from Frederick Douglass High School. She even attended college as she likes to remind her granddaughter "I spent two years up at The Coppin State." She spent many years in the workforce in the heart of Baltimore City. From the Baltimore City Jail system, Bail Bond Offices, The National Aquarium, and her beloved BGE. She took pride in being a Deaconess and Nurse at her most faithful Canaan Baptist Church where her church family deemed her "The Mayor" because everywhere she went, she was in charge.
