Memories

I'd like the memory of me
To be happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done
Whispering softly down the way
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days
I'd like tears to those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When my life is done

Obituary

James Lewis Pemberton was born on November 2, 1961 at Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia to Edna E and Jim Lewis Pemberton. He peacefully departed this life on February 21, 2022. James was preceded in death by his parents Edna E (Hill) and Jim Lewis Pemberton, his brother Jimmy Lee Pemberton, his grandparents Mary and Arbrey Pemberton, and Daisy Hill. James, more affectionately known as Pimp, was raised in Philadelphia and attended the Public School System. James became the proud father of Whitney Pemberton. James never married, but eventually moved to South Carolina with the late Diane to start a life with his daughter Whitney. Eventually James fell upon hard times. While getting his life back on track James began attending church and working. James worked as a construction worker. He enjoyed his job and was excellent at it. James did everything from painting to the reconstruction of many houses throughout Philadelphia.

He leaves to cherish memories: His daughter Whitney Pemberton of Pennsylvania. His sister Linda J Foreman of Pittsburgh Pa. His brother William E Pemberton of Philadelphia Pa. Many nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, aunts, and a host of other relatives and friends who love and miss him dearly!
