To My Grandson "Dee Dee"

The time we had was not long enough.
My heart is broken into pieces
and it will never be whole again,
not until I see you in Glory.
It is so very hard for me to let you go.
My heart always aches
and my eyes will always have tears
that will burn for you.
So, you rest my grandson in God's bosom
until we see you again.

With Love Always,
Grandma

Fly High

To My Love!

Thank you for showing me what true love is.
Thank you for making the two years we were together
the best two years I ever had.
Thank you for loving me truly.
Thank you for making me realize I can love myself for who I am.
We have so many memories that I can't stop repeating in my head.
I'm so sorry that you won't be here to help welcome
our little baby girl into this world.
You were so happy to be a father.
It's tearing me apart now that you're gone.
You will forever be in my heart.
Our baby girl will love you so much.
I love you so much and I'm missing you every second.
Fly high baby and continue to watch over us until we meet again.

Your Fiancé
Naveah Musgrove

Dee Dee

Missing you will always be
Although its hard, it has to be,
We will always remember the love,
Joy and kindness you brought to us.
One thing we know the love we have for you
Will forever in our heart remain.
Until we meet again one day.
Fly high and keep your eye on everyone.
Remembrance of you will always be in our hearts.

The Obituary

Deshun Vensha “Dee Dee” Williams was born on October 3, 2004, to Robert J. Williams, Jr. and Constance N. Carter. He transitioned from this life on March 4, 2024.

He joined Triumph Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Bishop Cantrell Durr, where he became active in the church, singing in the choir, and most importantly, he gave his life to Christ.

He enjoyed being around his family, friends, and very special friend and fiancé, Naveah Musgrove.

He was preceded in death by his father, Robert J. Williams, Jr.; his grandfather, Robert J. Williams, Sr.; and his grandmother, Mary L. Edwards.

He leaves to cherish his memory: fiancé, Naveah Musgrove; daughter, Heaven LaMiracle Shay Williams; mother, Constance N. Carter; three brothers, Robert J. Williams, III, Travontae Marion, and Carter Marion; three sisters, Ivy A. Williams, Alliebell C. Williams, and Iyana Marion; two close friends who were like brothers, Kwame and Kaleb Buckley; maternal grandparents, Aaron and Betty Lowe, paternal grandmother, Gloria L. Williams; uncles, Jamal Williams, Clarence Williams, Justin Ward, Terrence Bass, Jr., Tre’Veon Bass, and Lewis Edwards; aunts, Savitri Williams, Jasmine Williams, Taree Williams, Rosalyn Williams, Vera Williams, Dominique Ward, Contrell Ward, Sheila Edwards, and Amanda J. Ward; and a host of cousins and friends.

Psalm 23

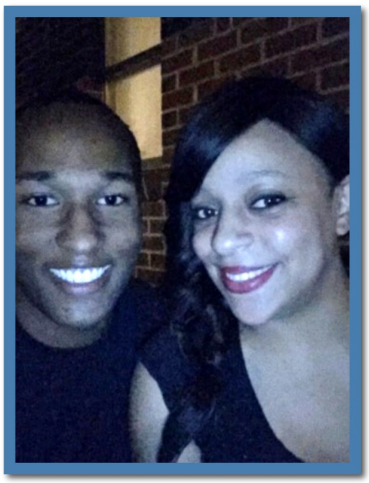

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
