

Family Acknowledgements

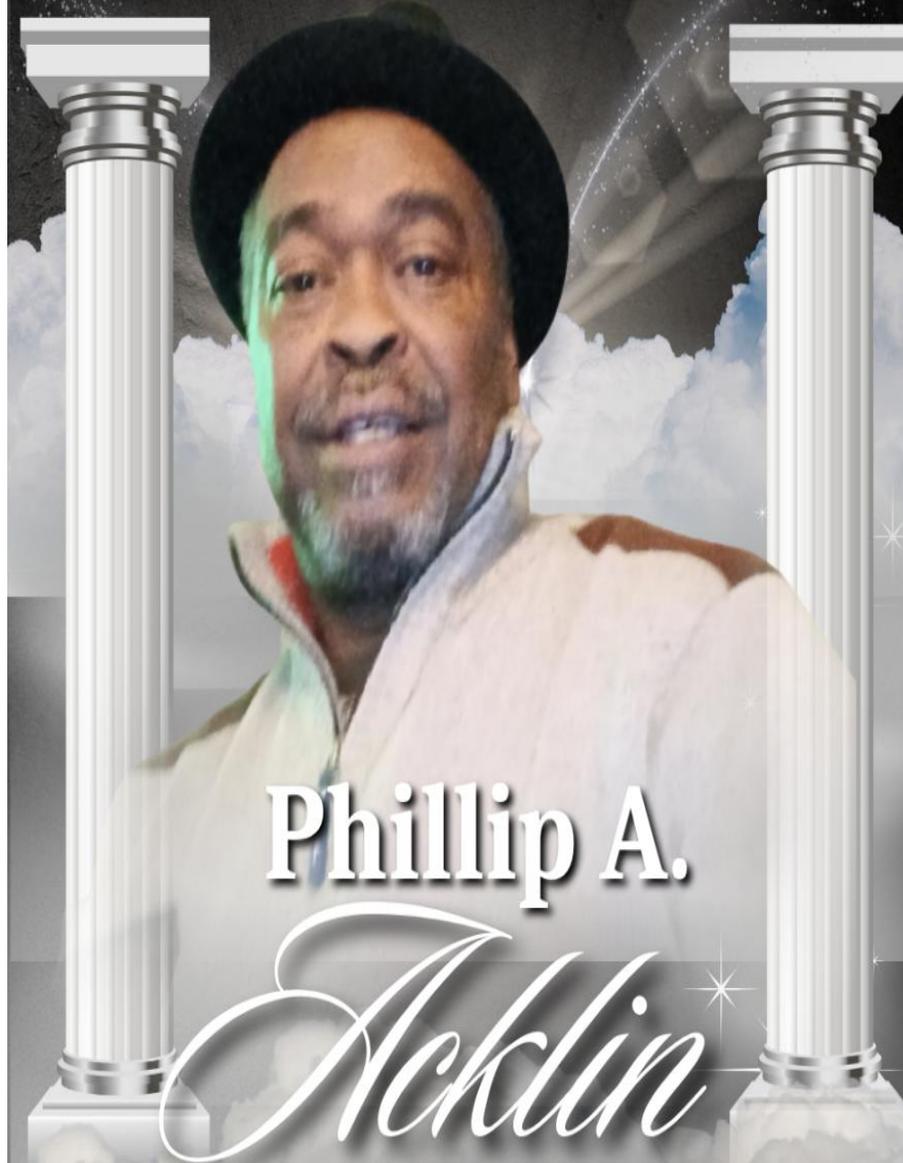

We, the family of Phillip Acklin, wish to extend our sincere appreciation to our family and friends for your prayers, support and many acts of kindness during our grief. Despite our physical loss, we know that God is in control, we are blessed to have God in our lives. Love and Peace, thank You all!

There is a special angel in Heaven
who is a part of me.
It is not where God wanted him to be.
He was here but just a moment, like a nighttime shooting star.
And though he is in Heaven, he isn't very far.
He touched the hearts of many, like
only an angel can do.
I would have held him every minute
if, in the end, I only knew.
So send this special message to Heaven up above:
Please take care of my angel, God,
and send him all my love.
— Amy Acklin

Life Reflections

Philip Acklin was born in Kansas City, Missouri, on November 16, 1963, to the union of Lucy Ann Acklin and Joseph Tillman Sr. He was called home by the Lord on Saturday, May 24, 2025. His devoted wife, Amy Acklin, was by his side.

Philip attended the Kansas City, Missouri public schools and was employed by the Senior Community Service Employment Program. He faced many challenges in his life. Despite the obstacles he encountered, he was able to obtain his GED and an associate degree in Peer Specialization.

He enjoyed playing pool and watching sports. Philip was mischievous at heart and had a great sense of humor. He was a hustler and the one you could call when you needed anything done—he considered himself a jack-of-all-trades. He loved his family deeply and will be missed dearly.

Philip leaves to cherish his memory: his spouse, Amy Acklin; four daughters, including Ishia Harris; stepdaughters Anna Davis, Keisha Davis, and Marielle Strother; and three stepsons, Martese Strother, Maurice Sloan, and Damon Clark. He also leaves behind seven grandchildren, his brother Gaylon Acklin (Venita), his sister Charlieann Johnson, and a host of nieces and nephews.
