

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joys:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, and know that now I am with Jesus and there is perfect bliss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full; I savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now—He has set me free.

If you don't remember anything else, remember this….
Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

OBITUARY

Born on June 15, 1943, Rosetta Alexander Carr (Rose) brought a special joy into the world as daughter of Al Alexander and Sarah Alexander (Williams). Growing up alongside her brothers and sisters, she brought a unique light to her family that would shine throughout her entire life.

She grew up locally, attending school in Haskell, Ok and Wagner, OK, where she built the foundation for a life defined by hard work and dedication. Later in life, she found her professional home at the Ford Glass plant, where she worked diligently for many years until her well-deserved retirement.

Rose's greatest legacy is her family. She was blessed with four children, Anthony, Jonetta, Harold, and Bryan, whom she raised with love and devotion. Later in life, she found companionship and deep love when she married Richard Carr. The two shared a beautiful marriage, remaining devoted to one another until his passing.

Above all things, she was a woman of profound and unwavering faith. As a member of the New Joy Fellowship Church, her life was a living testament to her beliefs. She found her greatest comfort and strength in the Word of God, spending countless hours reading her Bible and sharing her wisdom by quoting scriptures to encourage and uplift everyone around her.

Rose also enjoyed fishing and spending time with the people she loved. She found happiness in the simple moments of life—being with family

Rose departed this life on September 25, 2026. She leaves behind a beautiful legacy of love and family. She is survived by her 2 brothers, Tommy and Monroe Alexander and 1 sister Jennette Mayfield; her beloved sons, Harold and Bryan Liggins; her cherished grandchildren, Monique Liggins, Jillisa Johnson, Bryonia Liggins, and Kayla Dixon; and several precious great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews who will miss her dearly.

Waiting to greet Rose in Heaven are her beloved parents, Al Alexander and Sarah Alexander (Williams) along with her brothers and sisters; her husband, Richard Carr; her children, Anthony and Jonetta; and her granddaughter, Alexandria.
