

Lorraine was a lifetime resident of Wilkin County. She was the second of six daughters born to Eddie and Mayme (Kunch) Kvidera on October 28, 1925. Her sisters are Alice Neuman, Doris Dorsch, Helen Helle, Lois Smith, and Pat Myaer. Lorraine attended country school through the 8th grade. She then worked for a time at the Ginrich mailroom and took care of the family's two children.

Lorraine married Arthur Wolter on June 23, 1944, at the Catholic Church in Foxhome, MN. They purchased a farmstead southeast of Breckenridge, MN, and were blessed with four children. Lorraine spent her adult life as a farm wife. She was a member of the Eagle's Auxiliary.

Lorraine loved spending time with her children and grandchildren, and they have many fond memories of helping Lorraine put puzzles together while visiting. She enjoyed embroidery, sewing, and needlework. When each grandchild got married, she blessed them with a beautiful wedding quilt. Spending time outdoors was Lorraine's favorite, and she was especially proud of her well-manicured lawn. Lorraine also loved cooking and baking and trying new recipes. Summer afternoons would always find her listening to the Twin's Baseball games on the radio while she did her housework. She and Art did a lot of traveling together which included visiting Las Vegas and visiting her three sisters in California. After Art died in May of 2008, Lorraine moved to Twin Town Villa in Breckenridge. Most recently, Lorraine resided at St. Francis Home in Breckenridge.

Lorraine is survived by her three children, Bonnie (Mike) Brunner, Minot, ND; Sharon (Ron) Leinen, Breckenridge, MN, David (Joyce) Wolter, Breckenridge, MN; 10 grandchildren, Michelle (Brandon) Shafer, Robert (Anastasia) Brunner, Randy (Jaimie) Brunner, Ryan Brunner, Heidi (Heath) Fossen, Eric (Jaime) Leinen, Heather (Adam) Voorhees, Kory Wolter, Leah Dalton, and Rebecca Wolter; 14 great-grandchildren, Nichole Brunner, Katie Brunner, Riley Brunner, Aidan Shafer, Ian Shafer, Kirstin Brunner, Maizey Brunner, Dane Brunner, Kenley Brunner, Olivia Fossen, Brayden Brunner, Hudson Brunner, Hana Lehn, and Darla Dalton.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur Wolter; son, Ronald Wolter; grandson, Eddie Brunner; parents, Eddie and Mayme Kvidera; sisters, Doris Dorsch and Lois Smith; and sons-in-law, Mike Brunner and Ron Leinen.

How Great Thou Art

Verse 1

Oh Lord, my God
When I, in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Chorus

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

Verse 2

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin

Chorus

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

Verse 3

When Christ shall come, with should of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art

Chorus

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
