

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Irma Lovell Washington, a woman of deep faith, strength, and quiet beauty, was called home on March 9, 2026. She was born on June 23, 1954, and raised in Woodlawn and Lincoln Heights, where her roots were grounded in family, resilience, and love.

Irma attended Princeton High School and carried a spirit that was both strong and uniquely her own. She was known for her intelligence, stubborn determination, and a playful, joyful personality that brought light to those around her.

She loved the ocean, music, traveling, and nature. Above all, she loved Jesus. Her faith was steady and personal, guiding her throughout her life.

Irma was a devoted mother to her four children: Nicki Price, Carlos Washington, Tasha Washington, and Isaac Washington. She loved her children deeply and completely, always rooted in love. Her grandchildren brought her great joy and pride.

Irma will be remembered for her strength, her spirit, and her unwavering love. We find peace in knowing she is now with Jesus, walking in eternal peace.

Today we honor a woman who was strong, loving, and full of life. Irma loved in her own way, deeply and fully. She was strong in spirit and stood through life's challenges with resilience. She had a light that brought joy, even in hard times. She loved nature, the ocean, and found peace in the beauty of God's creation. Most importantly, she loved Jesus. Today we find comfort knowing she is at peace, free, and walking with Him. We thank her for her love, her strength, and her presence in our lives. She will forever live on in us. Until we see her again.
