

The Day That God
CALLED YOUR NAME

The day that God called your name
It broke all our hearts in pieces,
But Heaven needed an Angel
And the one he picked was you.
I just wish He could have waited
And let you stay with us

But you have left memories in all our hearts
And that's where they'll always be.

I just wish we could rewind the clock or make it turn really slow.

We could have hugged you a little longer
Before you had to go.

No matter how much time will pass
We'll miss you every-day.

Keep shining bright in Heaven
So you can lighten up all our days.

Reflection of His Life

FRANK "BOO BOY" KIRK

Frank Edward Kirk, son of the late Leola Kirk Finch and Thomas Mayfield Finch was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on July 26, 1944. He departed this early life on Wednesday, December 17, 2025, at Prisma Health Greenville Memorial Hospital, Greenville, South Carolina. Frank was educated in the public schools of Richland County graduating from Webber High School in 1965. In his early years, he was previously employed as a welder at Colite Industries and Klein Steel. He was later employed as a custodial worker at Palmetto Richland Memorial Hospital, Richland County School District, Westinghouse, and more recently, the Richland County Courthouse. He always took great pride in his work. He accepted Christ as his personal savior and was a member of Mt. Nebo Baptist Church.

Frank was united in holy matrimony to the late Betty Lee Walters Kirk. This union was blessed with three lovely children. He was a devoted father and an even more devoted and present grandfather. Frank was a kind-hearted social butterfly who never met a stranger. He loved everyone who was fortunate enough to know him. If he ever called you his "Bruh", "Sis", "Daughter", "Niece", or "Nephew", he meant it. He expressed it through his words and his actions.

Frank was preceded in death by his sister, Barbara Ann Giddings and his brother, Robert Hairston.

Though the presence of one so dear is no more, he leaves warm memories to be cherished with his son, Edward S. Kirk, Gadsden, South Carolina; daughter, Gail V. (Tyrone) Foster, Simpsonville, South Carolina; Frankie R. Kirk, Columbia, South Carolina; sister, Vivian (Eddie) Palm, Lompoc, California; sisters-in-law, Luella (Samuel) Roberts, Eastover, South Carolina; Lillian Hawkins, Hopkins, South Carolina; 15 grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and special friends.
