Gloria's LIFE STORY

Mrs. Gloria Vandora Hegerman was born on November 4, 1936. Gloria was the daughter of the late Alexander Brydson and Phoebe Wallace.

On Friday, September 9, 2022, after a brief illness, Gloria transitioned this life and went home to be with the Lord.

Gloria was educated in Halifax Virginia and the Philadelphia School System.

In 1956, Glo (as many endeared to call her) met Robert C. Hegerman Jr.; LOVE was in the air and they married March 23, 1957. From this union, the Lord blessed them with two beautiful children; Robert III and Ora Viola; to whom she was deeply devoted.

Gloria accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal savior and joined Mt. Ephraim Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. J. Earl Adkins. Gloria served as one of the original members of the Gospel Chorus and later called to serve as a Deaconess alongside her husband Deacon Robert C. Hegerman Jr.

Glo had many gifts, one of which she found during her employment at Geneses Health Care and as a private CNA. She found her calling. Gloria cared for others, especially, those in need.

Proceeded in death, Robert C. Hegerman Jr., Gloria leaves to cherish her memory, Minister Robert C. Hegerman III (Michelle) and Missionary Ora V. Jeffries. One Sister: Edith Alford, brother in-law: Rev. Kenwood Hagamin Sr. (Evelyn), and sister in-law: Ora Smith. Gloria has five grandchildren: Melinda, Maurice (Maneka), Yolanda, Veronica (Sherelle) and Serena. The Lord found favor in the Hegerman Union and blessed Gloria with 17 great-grandchildren: Noah, Christopher, Shaniyah, Anthony, Maurice Jr., Elijaah, Wilson, Mahkaylah, Christian, Ethan, Makynzie, Sansa, Zayden, Cameron, Sherelle Jr., Shareef, and Saniyah. God-Mother to Lola Byrd, Robin Cobbs and Derek Hicks Jr. as well as a multitude of family and friends. Giving special thanks to Barbara Smith, Christine Henry-Mason and Evelyn Miller for their unwavering love, support and devotion shown throughout her transition.

Lovingly submitted, The Family
