

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Marla D. Moore

Marla D. Moore, 62, of Sedalia, MO, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 8, 2024, at EW Thompson Health and Rehabilitation Center. Born on December 24, 1961, in Trenton, MO, she was the beloved daughter of Judy G. (Davis) Moore, who resides in the home and the late James R. Moore, who passed away on August 30, 2015.

A proud graduate of Boonville High School in 1982, Marla dedicated 31 years of her life to the Ewing Vocational Center, where she made lasting friendships and positively impacted many lives. She also assisted her dear friend, the late Marge Harlan, with computer data filing.

Marla's joyful spirit shone through her many interests: she loved solving word search puzzles, cheering on her favorite WWE wrestlers, and enjoying the sounds of country music. A true connoisseur of comfort food, she never turned down a delicious cheeseburger and fries.

Marla is survived by her loving mother, Judy Plumb of Sedalia; two devoted sisters, Lisa Bird (Steve) of Pilot Grove and Mindy Ruckman (Bryan) of Sedalia; and a cherished bonus sister, Belena Spencer (Delvin) of Enid, Oklahoma. She also leaves behind several nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews, all of whom held a special place in her heart.

In addition to her father, Marla was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Lois and Harry Davis, her step-grandfather J.L. Hamilton, and her paternal grandparents, Thornton and Mabel Moore.

Marla's kindness, laughter, and love will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
