What Mom Took
Most often when we think of Mom,
We think of what she's given:
The softness of a loving touch,
A gentle guide for living;
A nightly tip-toe in a room,
An understanding look;
But sometimes when I think of Mom
I think of what she took.
She took a child and taught it how
To live this life with pride
She took those kindergarten tears,
And kept them all inside.
She took the hand that longed to hold
Her child and not let go
Used them to push her child along
The way, to thrive and grow.
Took time to do some other things
Like sew, and clean and cook,
And never thought to ask for thanks
For all the things she took.
Thank, Mom.

Roselind Yvonne Quilt Eagle Star was born May 9, 1940 to Felix Quilt and Sybil Long Turkey. She attended St. Joseph's Indian School and high school at Flandreau Indian School. She was united in marriage to Erwin LaRoche and to this union Earl, Leighton, Curtis, and Connie. She met Leonard Driving Hawk and Anita was born.

She later married Jasper Russell Eagle Star and to this union Nancy, Dulcy, Jasper, Basil, and Margaret were born. She also raised as her own two grandchildren, Cindy and Olivia.

In 1992, she started working at the Golden Buffalo Casino as a porter and then in 1994, she became a CHR for the second time in her life. She resigned in 2017 completing 23 years for the Lower Brule Sioux Tribe.

She enjoyed spending time with her very special niece Nonie Byington.

Roselind passed away on April 14, 2024 at Sanford Care Center in Chamberlain at the age of 83 years. Gratefully sharing her life are her children Earl LaRoche Sr., Anita Flute, Nancy Eagle Star, Dulcy Eagle Star, Jasper Eagle Star, Basil Eagle Star, and Margaret Eagle Star, her hunka brothers Wayne Estes and R. Perry Estes, and many other friends and relatives.

Preceding her in death were her parents, her husband Jasper Eagle Star; sons Leighton LaRoche, Curtis Robert McGhee; daughter Connie LaRoche; and all her brothers Felix Quilt, Ralph Quilt, William "Willie Duck" Quilt, Newman Quilt, Robert "Bobby" Quilt, and Tom Estes.
