

Missing You

You would sit for hours, shooting the breeze,
Sharing stories carried by the wind through the trees.
Your laughter filled spaces no silence could hide,
And your love walked gently by our side.

The days may pass, the seasons may change,
But the memories we hold will always remain.
In every smile, in every tear,
We'll carry your spirit and keep you near.

Though our hearts ache with this goodbye,
We find comfort looking toward the sky.
While we wish you could still be here,
we trust in God's plan. He's got you now.

So rest in peace, your journey's through,
Wrapped in eternal love so pure and true.
Until we meet again, somehow, some way,
We'll miss you every single day.

With Love,
Lawanda Smith

PALLBEARERS

Nephews

FLOWER BEARERS

Nieces

Acknowledgements

The family of Lee Grant Smith wishes to express our sincere gratitude for all acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement.
May God bless each of you.

Collins Funeral Home

714 W Dekalb Street
Camden, SC 29020

A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF

Lee Grant Smith

"Well done, good and faithful servant."

MATTHEW 25:23

DECEMBER 21, 1958 - MAY 30, 2026

SERVICE

Saturday, June 6, 2026
1:00 p.m.

Testimonial Ministries Church

316 Dicey Ford Road
Camden, South Carolina

Obituary

Mr. Lee Grant Smith passed from this life into eternal life on Saturday May 30, 2026, at the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston, South Carolina.

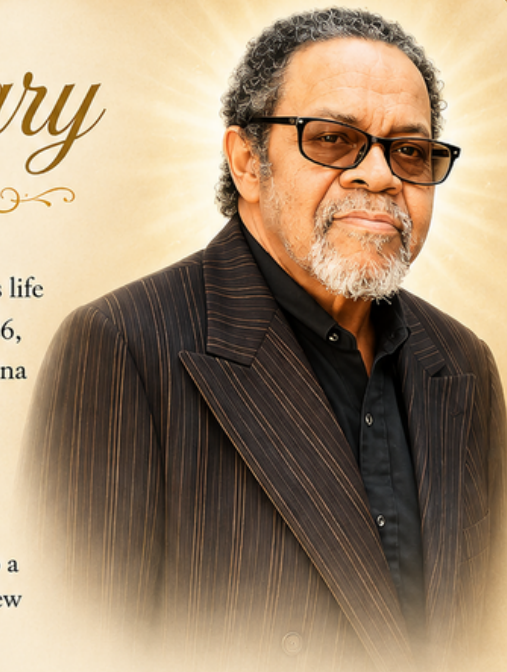

Born December 21, 1958, to the late Mr. Johnnie Smith, Sr. and the late Mrs. Bessie Reed Smith. He was born in to a loving family of brothers and sisters who grew up together in a faith-filled home.

He was a graduate of the Kershaw County public school system, and he was very active in his church and community. As a young man and throughout his adulthood, he served faithfully at St. Peter United Methodist Church—singing and serving in whatever capacity he was asked. He particularly enjoyed praying in the church.

Lee Grant was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie and Bessie Smith; his son, Patrick Antwan Smith; four sisters – Mrs. Laura Belle Adamson, Mrs. Beulah M. Dye, Ms. Margaret Smith, and Mrs. Lottie Belle Bethune; three brothers – Mr. Johnnie Smith, Jr., Mr. David Smith, Mr. Daniel Smith, and Mr. Randolph Smith.

Those left to cherish his fond memories, grieve his passing, and to celebrate his life are his children, Lawanda Smith of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Pamela Johnson of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; his grandchildren, Isaiah White, Iyanna White, Tyanna White, Skyline Smith, Liam Smith, Nevaeh Smith, Raekwon Epps, Nasir Johnson, Quamere Johnson; his great grandchildren, Desiree Epps and Heaven Evans from Myrtle Beach; his three sisters, Mrs. Dorothy (Roosevelt) Townsend of Buffalo, New York, Mrs. Bessie L. Sanders of Camden, South Carolina, and Mrs. Deloris (Edward) Dixon of Rochester, New York; three brothers, Michael (Pastor Betty) Smith, Otis (Sharon) Smith, and Larry Smith, all of Camden, South Carolina; and a dear and special friend, Debbie Gibbs of Camden, South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Collins Funeral Home
714 W Dekalb Street
Camden, SC 29020

Order of Service

Rev. Dr. James P. Smith, Officiating

Processional Family and Friends
Hymn “Pass Me Not O Gentle Savior” Congregation
Invocation Rev. Betty Smith, Pastor
Testimonial Ministries

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Psalm 27:1-14 Rev. John W. Lee
1 Corinthians 13:1-13 Rev. Betty Smith
Revelation 21:1-10 Rev. Dr. James P. Smith

Affirmation of Faith
Hymn “Amazing Grace” Congregation
Remarks Thomas Drakeford, Family & Friends
Rev. John W. Lee, Community
Acknowledgements Ernestine Alexander
Hymn of Preparation “I Will Trust in the Lord” Congregation
Eulogy Rev. Raymond Cook, Pastor
St. Peter/Rock Spring U. M. Churches
Closing Selection “I Am Free” Congregation
Committal and Commendation St. Peter UMC Cemetery

*“The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?”*

PSALM 27:1