PASTOR SHELBY SINGLETON, OFFICIATING

EARLY LIFE & FAITH

Windell Singleton was born in Yazoo County, Mississippi, on June 23, 1959, to Johnnie Singleton and Ruby Ann Lee Singleton ("Puddin").

At an early age, Windell confessed his hope in Christ and united with Old Concord Missionary Baptist Church, where his membership remained steadfast throughout his life. A lifelong resident of Yazoo County, Windell was widely known for his warmth, generosity, and strong work ethic. A hardworking and dedicated provider, he spent his career working in the oil fields, specializing in site preparation and pipeline construction jobs across the industry.

LIFE, LOVE & LEGACY

Outside of work, Windell found true joy in the simple pleasures of life. He loved watching the news and classic westerns, listening to the blues, and spending time outdoors hunting, fishing, and gardening. Whether he was firing up the grill to barbecue, working on cars, or lending a helping hand to neighbors and family with small projects around the house, Windell was always dependable and eager to serve. Above all, he deeply cherished every moment spent in the company of his loved ones and friends.

In 1978, Windell welcomed his first child, Montoya Woods, with Irene Woods. In 1985, he met and married Sharon Williamson Singleton, and to their union two children, Sean and Britney, were born. Windell was later preceded in death by his beloved wife, Sharon. For the past ten years, Windell shared cherished companionship and love with Corylonann Johnson of Arlington, Texas.

Windell was preceded in death by his loving parents, Johnnie Singleton and Ruby Ann Lee Singleton; his wife, Sharon Williamson Singleton; two brothers, Cartier Singleton and Elbert "Lil Bruh" Singleton; and three sisters, Maggie "Lula" Singleton, Eugenia "BayBay" Spires White, and Rutha "Ruthie" Mae Singleton.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory:
His children: Montoya Woods ("Winnie Pooh"), Sean Singleton, and Britney Singleton, all of Yazoo City, MS.
His siblings: Alma Jean Webb (Joe Louis), Bessie Singleton, and Johnnie Singleton, Jr. (Edna), all of Chicago, IL; Jeanette Robinson (Eugene) of Canton, MS; Hattie Brown of Southaven, MS; and Arletha Singleton (James) of Yazoo City, MS.
His grandchildren: Karona Haymer, Montavious Woods, Jaiden Haymer, Ashari Singleton, Keyasia Singleton, Keyshayla Galloway, Sean Singleton II, Laysha Sims, and Jordan Wade.
His great-grandchildren: Ramel Haymer, Kailend Woods, Kiyuana Duckworth, and Ka'Niyla McDonald.
His loving companion: Corylonann Johnson of Arlington, TX.
He also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and lifelong friends who will dearly miss his presence and generous spirit.

Windell we've had our ups and downs, but we were always sister and brother in the end. I know that you were sick and tired, but I thought that I had more time with you. I feel that I've done my part as your sister, and we'll see each other again one day in our Heavenly Father's house.

Love always your big sister, Arletha

Dad, the world changes from year to year, our lives from day to day, but the love and memory of you, shall never pass away. We will love and miss you always.

Love Sean, Montoya & Britney

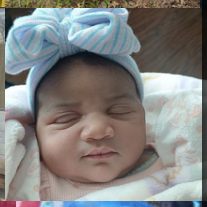

Unc, I honestly thought you were going to pull through. The last time I saw you, you looked so strong, and your spirit seemed just as strong too. You even walked down the hall with me. My heart is broken, but I know how much you missed Ma and Momma, and I can only imagine the joy of being reunited with them again in Heaven. Give them a hug for me and tell them I said hello. I love and miss all of you so much. Until we meet again, know that you'll always hold a special place in my heart.

Love you, Claudia
