Her Life & Legacy

Mildred Leary, age 63, was born May 9, 1963, in Marshallville, Georgia, to the late Easter Leary and Benjamin Leary Sr. The baby of a large family, she later made her home in Fort Valley, Georgia.

Mildred was a loving, bubbly, and outspoken woman whose vibrant personality could light up a room. She spoke her mind, loved deeply, and had a beautiful sense of style. Her confidence and warmth made her one of a kind.

A graduate of the Macon County Public School System, Mildred retired from Fort Valley State University. Above all, she cherished her family and remained strong through life's challenges.

Her faith in God carried her through every season. She was connected to Temple of Miracle Worship Center, where faith remained an important part of her journey.

Her love, laughter, bold spirit, and unwavering faith will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Those Left to Cherish Her Memory

She leaves to cherish her memory her two sons, Roger Lamont Leary and Justin Little; her siblings Ella Carey (Herman), Freddie Leary (Jannette), Louis Leary, Willie B. Leary (Eva), Mathis Leary (Kelly), and William Leary (Hannah).

She also leaves her devoted friend, Shari Bryant, along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, loved ones, and dear friends.

Those Who Preceded Her in Death

Mildred was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Easter Leary and Benjamin Leary Sr.; her brothers Leonard Leary, Clarence Leary, Jack Leary, James Leary, Benjamin Leary Jr., and Eddie B. Leary; her grandson, Keshawn Leary; and Calloway Little.

Her Love Remains. Her Legacy Lives On.
