John 14:1-3

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also.

My New Address

*I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
For the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in
My new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
And from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion
And my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.*

Precious Memories

To Our Beloved Mother

Our beloved mother passed away. Mommy was the heart and soul of our family. A constant source of love, wisdom and encouragement, not only for her children, but for many others who came through the house on St. Peter. We can still feel the warmth of her hugs and her infectious laugh even now. Her smile was so radiant, that it lit up the room.

She had a way with us from childhood through adulthood. She shared a special bond with each one of us differently.

While we mourn her passing, we take comfort knowing her legacy lives on through her children and grandchildren. We will be forever grateful for the unconditional love she gave us. Her kindness and warmth touched everyone she met. Losing her leaves an ache in our hearts, but also inspiration to live up to her beautiful example.

From Your Dear Sisters

Dearest sister, You were more than just my sibling—you were my confidant, my partner in mischief, and my greatest cheerleader. Your laughter was the melody that brightened our days, and your kindness touched everyone who was lucky enough to know you.

You were the sister in heaven I never imagined I'd miss so soon.

Every memory with you is a tribute to a sister who changed my world.

*You left behind a legacy of kindness, strength, and love.
Your presence touched lives in ways words can't describe.
I'll keep honoring your life with every good thing I do.*

Marjorie Nell, Polly, and Beverly

From Your Brothers

Today, I stand here with a heart full of love and memories, honoring our sister, who was not just our sibling but a lifelong friend, a confidant, and a greatest supporter. Losing her feels like losing a part of us, your brothers, but I want to celebrate the incredible person she was and the joy she brought to everyone who knew her.

Our sister had a way of lighting up every room she entered. Her laughter was infectious, her kindness boundless, and her strength inspiring. She was the kind of person who could turn the darkest days into something brighter, simply by being herself. Whether it was through her words of encouragement, her warm hugs, or her unwavering belief in those she loved, she made the world a better place.

Growing up together, we shared countless silly memories, some profound, and all unforgettable. From her late-night talks, she was such a great ally. She taught all of us so much about love, resilience, and the importance of cherishing every moment.

Though she is no longer with us, her spirit lives in the lessons she taught us and the love she gave so freely. We will carry her memory in our heart every single day, striving to honor her by living with the same grace, courage, and compassion that she embodied.

To our sister: Thank you for being you. Thank you for the laughter, the love, and the light you brought into our lives. We will miss you more than words can express, but we do know that you are watching over us, smiling that beautiful smile of yours.

Rest peacefully, our dear sister. You will always be our guiding star.
