

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Remembering Pat

Patricia Lynn Valderrama, born on August 1, 1955, in San Francisco, California, passed away on February 4, 2025, in Shawnee, Oklahoma. She was a remarkable individual whose life was marked by her fierce spirit, unwavering loyalty, and commitment to her family and friends.

Pat graduated from Classen High School as part of the Class of 1973. She was an extroverted person who lived for socializing and was always with a friend. An entrepreneur at heart, Pat devoted many years alongside her husband to developing the family business, "Valderrama Concrete." As an extroverted person, she thrived on social interactions and cherished the relationships she cultivated. Pat was a fierce woman; strong, loyal, and a force to be reckoned with. She was known to speak her mind and never met a stranger.

Above all, Pat valued her independence and was a devoted and proud mother. She cared deeply for her family, and there was little she wouldn't do for those she loved. Her memory will be cherished by everyone fortunate enough to be part of her life.

Pat was preceded in death by her father, Norman Factor and step-mother, Peggy Factor.

Those left to cherish her memory are eldest son, Felix Warden, youngest son, Michael Warden, son-in-law, Logan Melvin, eldest daughter, Kandace Valderrama, youngest daughter, Lexxi Valderrama, and husband, Luis Valderrama.

Remembering Mary

Mary Louise Factor, resident of Shawnee, passed away on Saturday, February 8, 2025. She was 90 years old. Mary was born in Wewoka, OK to her parents, Reed Frank Lena and Molly Lou Gray. She attended Indian boarding school most of her life. She graduated from Chillocco Indian Agricultural School in 1953. She was the vice president of 4-H Club and a member of the museum and guides club, Pep squad, and choir.

Mary spent many years working for the Department of Human Services before retiring in 1997.

Mary was preceded in death by her father, Reed Lena, mother, Molly Gray, daughter, Pat Valderrama, granddaughters, Leslie Factor, Brittaney Factor, and great-grandson, Nokose McKane.

Survivors include her daughter, Sharon McKane, sons, Paul Factor and Aaron Buck, grandchildren, Felix Warden, Robert McKane, Michael Warden, Mecco Factor, and Cheyton Factor, great-grandchildren, Kaylynn McKane, Aiyana McKane, Kandace Valderrama, Lexxi Valderrama, and Mvlahne McKane.
