OBITUARY

Alma Gene Henderson was born to the late Elbert Henderson and Edna Lee Crawford on March 24, 1947 in Clanton, Alabama. Alma moved to Detroit Michigan where she began her life.

Alma Gene Henderson started her family with the late John W. Davison. She became Alma Gene Davison and from that union came Joyce Davison, Roberta Davison, Yvonne Davison, Lenora Davison, John Jr. Davison, Mary Ann Davison. She was a devoted mother and wife.

She worked for Good Will, she loved her job and loved meeting new people. Alma took pride in her work and was always ready to do whatever she could to be a team player. When God chose to take Alma from us there were so many left to remember her warm spirit, beautiful smile and her laughter.

She had sisters, Ada Bee Henderson, Martha Harrington, Gladys Marie Crumsey and brothers Donald Henderson who preceded her in homegoing. She leaves behind to cherish her memory: Joyce Davison, Roberta Davison, Yvonne Davison, Lenora Davison, John Jr. Davison, Mary Ann Taylor; six grandchildren, Jasmine Taylor, Frantrina Taylor, Renae Taylor, Amber Henderson, Derrick Henderson, Alema Darden, Starr Darden, Devantae Davison; great-grandchildren, Jacob Donovan Taylor and Journee Nicole Carr; her brother, Jerry Henderson; and a host loving nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

We love you Alma Gene Davison we will see you when we get to Heaven. Love, Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid. For you see, when He first call my name, I gave Him my hand, And He took my Heart. Together we've walked many a mile, Seen our fair share of storms. Watched the golden sun come up And go down, Through all the fire and rain, He was always here, For He's always the same, Sometimes silent, but always strong, He's known my pain, He has given me His gain. His blessing I have seen, His wisdom I have gleaned. And as the river grew close, I took His hand, When I heard Him Call my name. I turned my back on this path I've walked, And left it all for the Glory ahead. I could not stay another day to laugh, To love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I've found that peace at the Close of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joys. The love of my family, a friendship shared, A laugh, a kiss, a hug, And the giggle of a baby, Oh yes, these things I shall remember. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, But live for the joy of tomorrow. There is no sorrow in our Lord, But rest and peace. I wish you the blessings of today, And the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, Family, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch, Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't Lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and Find your Peace in the Lord. For now I am finally Home, For now in Him, I am set free!

"And you now therefore have sorrow: But I will see you again, And your heart shall rejoice, And your joy no man taketh from you," John 16:22

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. – St. John 11:25-26
