

IN MEMORY OF MY DAD IN HEAVEN

If I could write a story It would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind and loving father Who had a heart of gold
I could write a million pages but there's one thing I would say, just how much I love and miss him every single day
I know he always loved me, I may be hurt, but I won't be sad I know he'll send down the answers
because he'll always be my Dad.

Obituary

Gregory Arcue Beauchamp was born on January 3rd, 1951, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Jeannette Pannell Beauchamp and Livingston Van Beauchamp. He spent his formative years in Walnut Hills, Avondale, and Downtown, becoming well-acquainted with various neighborhoods. Champ graduated from Woodward High School and later attended the University of Cincinnati, where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Psychology, which he utilized to supervise MRDD/Behavioral patients. In his later years, he pursued a Culinary Arts certificate.

Champ's unique fighting style was crafted through life's challenges and interactions with professional boxers and street fighters. He passed on his skills to his children and nephews.

Champ's faith evolved from accepting God through Christian beliefs to embracing Islam, culminating in the declaration of the Shahada. As a dedicated father, Champ's love for his children knew no bounds, inspiring a life transformation centered on family and grandchildren.

Champ, or "The Legend" as he was fondly known, played a paternal role in the lives of his many nieces, nephews, and others. He instructed the entire family in various skills, including self-defense, survival techniques, and the art of hustling. Champ earned the nickname "The Finesse God."

Cooking was another passion of Champ's, and he was widely recognized as the family's chef. His potato salad, in particular, was a hit with family members. Champ's home was always open to family and extended family, and he formed many meaningful relationships, becoming a Brother-Father figure to all. His boundless love and generous spirit were an inspiration. Champ firmly believed in prioritizing FAMILY FIRST! He was meticulous about his appearance and had an undeniable charm that made him a favorite among the ladies.

Champ was an extraordinary individual, renowned for his remarkable strength and leadership abilities. As a motivator, he possessed a profound understanding, guiding countless individuals through life's journey with unwavering reliability. His compassion and willingness to articulate his truth, even in the face of adversity, were truly admirable. Champ's humor was infectious, his dance moves mesmerizing, and his determination inspiring. He left an indelible mark on every life he touched and will be deeply missed.

Champ departed this life on January 16, 2025. He joins his father Livingston, Mother Jeannette, son Gregory A Beauchamp, Brothers; Ronald, Elmer T, Gevoyl Beauchamp. Sisters; Gail, Joann Beauchamp, and grand-daughter Ka'oir Smith.

He leaves behind a lasting legacy through his children, Michael Mcneil, Bridget Arter, Tiffany Beauchamp-Adrian, Lashawna Beauchamp, La'Christy Barber, Arcue Barber, Livingston Beauchamp, Desmond Barber, La'trice Barber, Deangelo Barber, and La'tisha Beauchamp, in addition to over 30 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. His surviving family members also include his aunt, Joyce Grigsby, brother Livingston Beauchamp, sisters Annette Beauchamp and Deborah Coulter, and godbrother Melvin Williams.
