In Loving Memory of Isaiah

You walked this earth with quite grace,
A steady heart, a shining face.
In every step, in every smile,
You made this life more worthwhile.

Though days are dim since you've been gone,
Your light, Isaiah, still shines on.
In whispered winds and skies so wide,
We feel your presence by our side.

You gave with hands both strong and kind,
A soul so rare, a brilliant mind.
You lifted hearts, you eased the pain,
And in our loss, your love remains.

No final breath can break the tie-
You're part of us, you never die.
For love like yours is endless, true,
And in our hearts, we carry you.

So rest, Isaiah, your journey's done,
Your peace has come, your race is run.
We'll meet again, beyond the skies,
Where angels sing and spirits rise.

Isaiah Kevin Maxi was born on August 16, 1994, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Kim Alexander-Maxi and Bertrand Maxi.

Isaiah's commitment to personal growth and excellence was evident in his education. He attended Center High School, where he was known not only for his academic dedication but also for his leadership and character. After graduating, Isaiah furthered his studies at Fort Hays State University, earning bachelor's degrees in Sociology and Organizational Leadership. His time in school was marked by resilience, discipline, and a drive to make a positive impact in his community.

Isaiah was currently employed by Burrell Behavioral Health of Kansas City, Missouri.

He loved spending time with his family and friends. He had a passion for football, basketball, hiking, meeting new people, and trying new things. Isaiah also enjoyed listening to music and volunteering his time to support numerous nonprofit organizations. He was a source of encouragement and inspiration to those around him, always lifting others—even in the midst of his own challenges. A true humanitarian.
