When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-

Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart

Go to the friends we know

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds-

Miss me, but let me go.

Terry William Bely, 59, lost his battle with cancer on August 2, 2023. He spent his last few days surrounded by his loving family who were at his side until the end.

Terry William Bely was born February 29, 1964 in Platte, SD to LeRoy Clarence and Wilma Arlene (Franek) Bely. He spent his childhood on the family farm in Kimball, SD with his three sisters Vickie, Bonnie and LeAnn along with his brother Burl.

On September 15, 1984, Terry was united in marriage to Crystal Hildebrand at St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Kimball, SD. To this union, four children were born Tyler, Kyle, Korbin, and Dalton. They raised their boys on the family farm.

Terry was blessed to have two grandchildren Roy and Arya. These two grandbabies were the light, pride, and joy of Terry's life.

Terry worked at Trail King for 25 years as a welder. In those 25 years, some great friendships were forged. Terry then joined the Trail-Eze Team as a welder where he enjoyed creating so many new friendships.

Terry enjoyed spending time with his family playing cards, hunting, fishing, and camping. In more recent years, he enjoyed going to Cool Deadwood Nights where he liked looking at all the restored cars.

Terry is survived by his loving wife, Crystal; four sons Tyler (Randi), Kyle, Korbin, and Dalton; three siblings Vickie Hines, Bonnie (Shannon) Rasmussen, and LeAnn (Jeff) Birkeland; two grandchildren Roy and Arya; two sisters-in-law Deb Bely and Kili Klinetobe; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Preceding him in death were his parents; his brother Burl; two brothers-in-law Larry Hines and Travis Klinetobe; his mother and father-in-law Larry and Karen Hildebrand.

The family would like to thank AseraCare Hospice for their care, so Terry was able to remain at home.
