Obituary

Carlyn Synmone Murphy was a woman whose presence left an imprint on every life she touched. Born on November 13, 1991, Carlyn grew into a person defined by her compassion, her strength, and her unwavering authenticity. She lived with a heart open to others, offering love, laughter, and encouragement in ways that made people feel seen and valued.

Carlyn was known for her resilience, facing life's challenges with courage and grace. She carried a wisdom beyond her years, often becoming the voice of reason, comfort, or humor in moments when others needed it most. Her vibrant spirit shined through in her smile, her conversations, and the way she showed up for the people she loved.

Family was the foundation of Carlyn's world. She cherished her loved ones deeply and created bonds rooted in loyalty, honesty, and genuine care. Whether she was celebrating milestones, sharing quiet moments, or offering support during difficult times, Carlyn's presence brought warmth and connection.

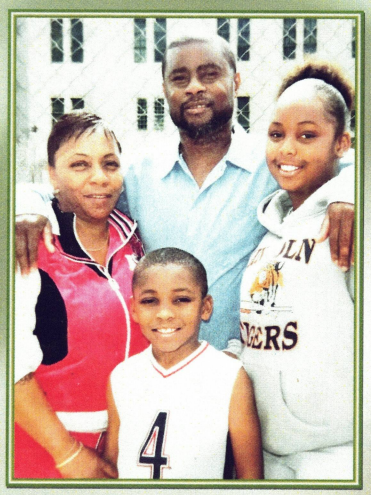

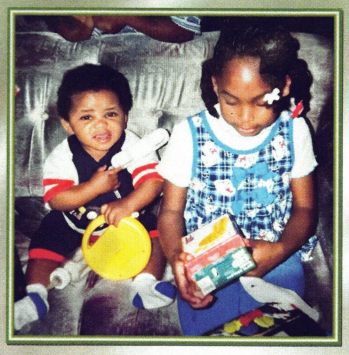

She had a gift for uplifting others — through her words, her actions, and her natural ability to make people feel safe. Carlyn believed in living truthfully, loving fully, and embracing life with intention. Her legacy is carried forward in the hearts of her family, her friends, and all who were blessed to know her.

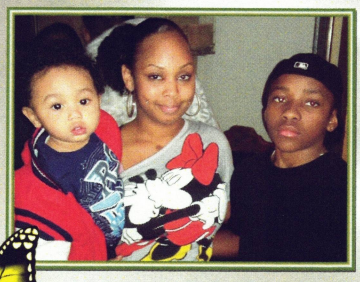

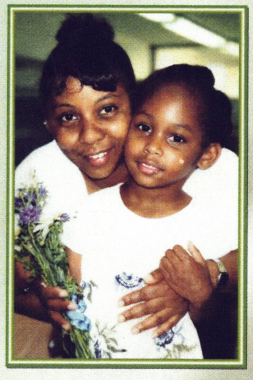

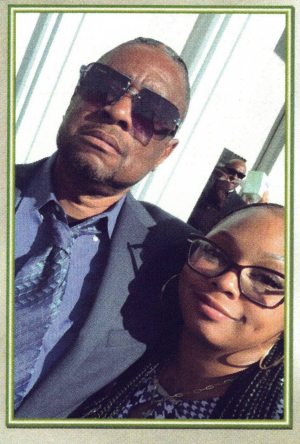

Carlyn's life was a reflection of love, courage, and light. Though her physical presence has transitioned, the impact she made remains everlasting.

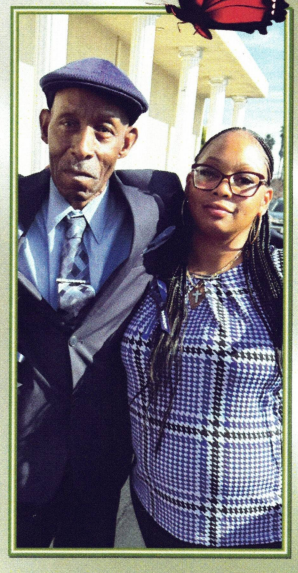

Carlyn was called home to be with the Lord on September 3, 2026, from San Dias, CA. She is preceded in death by her Carlyn Clayton Scott (Grandfather) Mildred Scott (Grandmother), Daiveon Roberts (brother), Ricky Collier (Uncle) and Dallas Hamm (Grandfather).

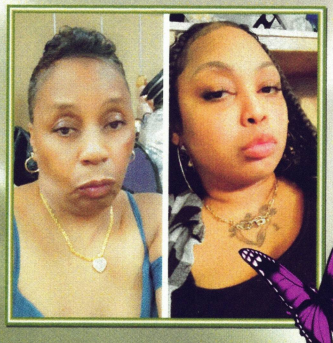

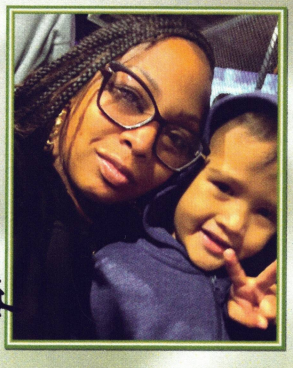

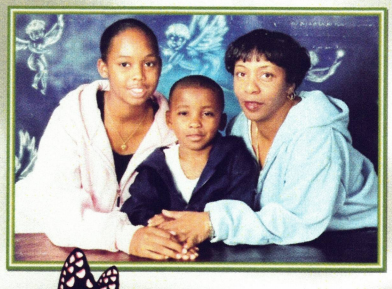

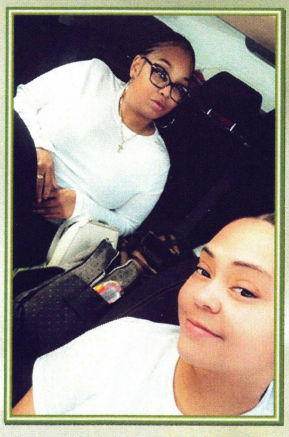

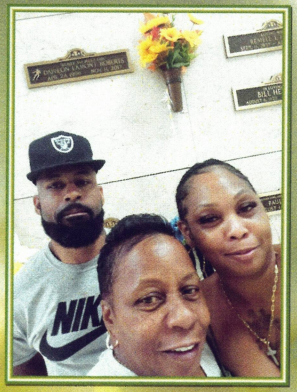

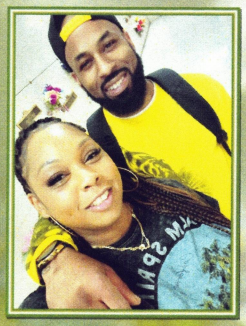

Carlyn leaves to cherish her memories, Angelo Arias (finance); children: Cameron Anthony Rodriguez, Angelo Daiveon Arias Julian Arias, Vanessa Arias and Micheal Arias; parents, Marvin and Caryl Roberts; grandparents, Helen Marie Hamm (Big Momma); siblings, Christopher Lodge; aunts and uncles Lamont Wright, Jevon Hamm, Vincent Hamm, Timothy Armstrong; grandchildren Addy and Isiasha, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Our Memories Last Forever...

CARLYN,
Even though your physical journey ended on September 3, 2026, your spirit has not left me. It lives in every memory, every story, every moment you touched with your love. Your light continues !

I thank God for the years He allowed me to love you, to raise you, to laugh with you, and to watch you grow into the extraordinary woman you became.

You will forever be my baby girl. You will forever be loved.
You will forever be remembered. You will forever be in our hearts
See you when I get there...
~ LOVE, MOM

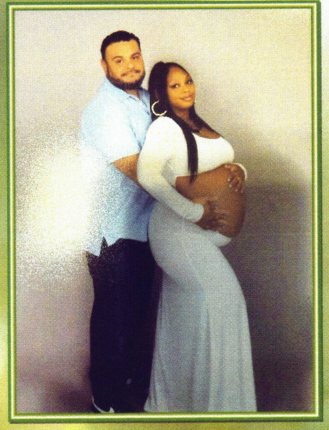

CARLYN,
There are no words that can describe my feelings behind your passing. My heart is heavy in a way I can't explain. I know you are in a better place now — no more suffering of any kind. You are with the Lord, wrapped in His love, and no one loves you more than He does.
God bless you. We love you, and we miss you more than words can ever express.
~ Love, Dad

MOM
Losing you has broken something inside me that I will carry forever. You were my strength, my comfort, and the one person who loved me with a depth I'll never feel again. Your love shaped me, protected me, and stayed with me even in my hardest moments.

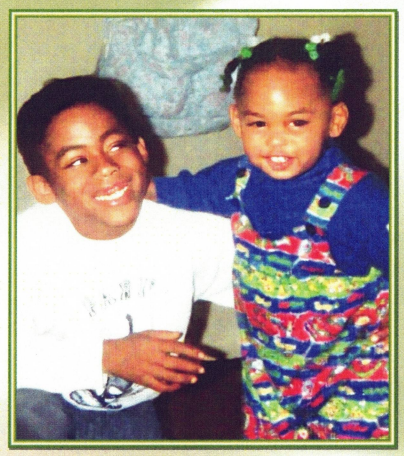

Life feels different without you, but the love you poured into me will never fade. I know you're resting in God's perfect peace now, free from every pain and every burden.

Thank you, Mom, for every sacrifice, every lesson, and every moment you stood by my side. I will miss you for the rest of my life, and I will honor you in everything I do. You will always be my heart.
~ Rest in heaven. Love, your son Cameron

CARLYN,
My Queen, you are my world. From the moment we met, I knew it was fate. You loved me in a way I had never felt before — gentle, loyal, and real. You didn't just care for me... you cared for my family like they were your own. That kind of love is rare, and I was blessed to be the man you chose.
Losing you feels like losing a piece of myself. Heaven didn't just gain an angel — it gained the most beautiful soul I've ever known. Rest, honey. I love you with all my heart, and I always will.
~ Love you forever, Angelo

DEAR CARLYN,

I miss you more than words can ever express. There are still moments when I want to call you, share something with you, or hear your voice one more time.

You were more than my little sister. You were a part of my heart, my life, and my story. Losing you has left a space that can never be filled.

I hope you always knew how deeply you were loved and how much you meant to me. I carry you with me every day through memories, love, and all the little things that remind me of you.

I wish I could hug you one more time and tell you how much I love you. Until we meet again, know that you are never forgotten and will always remain in my heart.

~ Love always, Your big brother Chris

JILLIAN

Revelation 21:4: "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain."

Although our hearts ache with the loss we are experiencing, I find comfort in knowing that God has not only wiped our tears, but wiped Carlyn's tears moments before she entered the gates of Heaven.Carlyn had a beautiful gift for finding the brightest part of everyone she met. She was a special kind of woman, someone who could turn even the most tense situation into laughter. That is what I will miss most about her: her ability to bring light and laughter into every room.Our loss was Heaven's gain. I find comfort in believing that she is now at peace, reunited with her grandma and brother, watching over all of us.And I believe she will visit us in our dreams, reminding us just how beautiful Heaven is and letting us know that she is resting peacefully.

See you on the otherside Momma. You will forever be loved, remembered, and missed.

~ Jillian Rodriguez (Daughter of Carlyn Murphy)

CARLYN,

Thank you for the your love and devotion. I'll regret holding on to resentment earlier in our relationship. You watched me grow from a young girl and now in woman hood, offering your support free of expectations. Thank you for always giving me grace and patience even when I did not have any. You helped me grow my confidence weather you knew it or not. Thank you for always saying what everyone was thinking. It'll always be painful knowing you leave us and a new baby boy behind so soon, but the love we have for you will show him everyday.

~ Vanessa

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I, in turn, will comfort you and hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!
