

“Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am there you may be also.”

John 14:1-3

Obituary

Sonya D. Stimpson, lovingly known to many as “Dee Dee,” was born on January 4, 1961, in Montgomery, Alabama, to the late Royal and Mildred Stimpson.

She spent her early years in Savannah, Georgia, where she attended Alfred E. Beach High School. Her love of science and learning led her to pursue a degree in Chemistry at Savannah State College (now Savannah State University), where she graduated with a Bachelor of Science.

Shortly after graduation, Dee Dee began her professional career with Hunt-Wesson Oil as a Chemist. In this role, she analyzed and tested food-grade oil products before they were shipped to retailers around the world. Her precision and dedication served the company well for 16 years, until its acquisition and closure.

Determined to continue in her field, Dee Dee joined Fuji Oil, another food-grade processing company, where she remained a respected professional, known for her deep expertise, attention to detail, and commitment to excellence.

In a season of selfless love, Dee Dee chose early retirement to care for her ailing father until his passing. This decision spoke volumes about her compassion, loyalty, and devotion to family.

Dee Dee found joy in life’s simple pleasures—reading, gardening, shopping, and visiting the sick and shut-in. Her generous heart and joyful spirit were a comfort and light to those around her.

On October 4, 2025, Dee Dee was called home to be with the Lord. Though her earthly journey has ended, the impact she made will continue to be felt through the lives she touched.

She is survived by her devoted siblings, Tangi Stimpson-Neal (Anthony) and Royal Stimpson III; beloved aunts Laura Mole and Julia Sheffield; nephews Anthony Jr. and Adrian; along with nieces, grandnieces, grandnephews, great-grandnieces, and a host of cousins. Dee Dee is also deeply mourned by many cherished friends and neighbors.

Though the seasons of her life have passed, the love she sowed will forever bloom in the hearts of those who knew her.
