Obituary

Helen Louise Austin-Young, a beloved grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend, peacefully passed away on September 2, 2026, and entered her heavenly rest in the arms of Jesus.

Helen Louise Austin-Young was born in Atlanta, Georgia on June 14, 1942, to the late Sylvester Austin and Dorothy Austin-Smith. The family later moved to Detroit, Michigan when Helen was a small child.

She accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at Olivet Baptist Church in Detroit, Michigan. Her faith was an important part of her life and the legacy she leaves behind.

Her greatest joy was her marriage to the love of her life, Wally. Their love and companionship were a cherished part of her life. She was a devoted wife and family woman who treasured the time she spent with those closest to her.

Helen was a retired postal worker who devoted many years to her career. Outside of work and family, she enjoyed the simple pleasures of life. She was passionate about a "good read" and was an avid baseball fan, many times recording the games to make sure she didn't miss any of the action. Helen also enjoyed shopping at Macy's Department Store, in her free time.

Helen was a dedicated and committed woman who deeply loved her family. She loved spending time with, celebrating and supporting the people she loved whether it was for birthdays, anniversaries, school and work accomplishments, milestones or "just because".

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Wallace "Wally" Young, and her parents, Sylvester Austin and Dorothy Austin-Smith.

Helen Louise Austin-Young leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, dedication, and cherished memories that will continue to live on in the hearts of her family, friends and all who knew and loved her.

*The family of Helen Austin-Young wishes to express their sincere gratitude for your love, support, kindness and prayers during this time.
Your love and presence is our blessing!*
